Braced For Far East Attack

U. S. Fears Chinese Reds Are Set To Invade Isles

May Bring Showdown For America

State Department's Keeping Far Eastern Experts On Alert

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials braced today for a possible Red China invasion of the Chinese Nationalist offshore islands over the Labor Day weekend.

Such a move would bring a showdown on whether the United States intends to defend the islands and become involved in combat with Red Chinese forces.

The State Department, under the command of Undersecretary of State Christian R. Herter, kept its Far East experts working at their desks or on call at home during the three-day holiday.

Top officials were away as a new tenseness continued to build up in the Far East in the wake of Red China's heavy shelling of Chinese Nationalist offshore islands.

President Eisenhower was vacationing at Newport, R.I., Secretary of State Dulles was on a sailing holiday at Lake Ontario and Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary of state for Far East affairs, was not expected back from vacation until Tuesday.

Eisenhower and Dulles have laid down a tough line for facing up to Peiping's threats to attack the offshore islands lying within sight of the China mainland.

Officials said the administration has decided to draw the line on any aggressive expansionism by Red China. But they refused to say flatly whether this meant the U.S. 7th Fleet, now on alert in the Formosa Straits, would fight to defend Quemoy, Matsu and other offshore Nationalist island outposts.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) said Friday night Congress should give its authorization before any U.S. forces are used to defend Quemoy and Matsu. He said if the administration is considering such a move the President should call a special session of Congress.

City Schools Expect 6,000 In New Term

Public Classes Will Resume Wednesday; Parochial's Tuesday

School bells will sound next week for some 6,000 public and parochial school students in East Liverpool with the start of the new term.

About 5,511 youngsters are due Wednesday morning at the public schools—an increase of 94 over the 1957 pre - school registration.

Around 500 are awaited at St. Aloysius Parochial School which starts the term Tuesday morning with a half - day session. The enrollment is expected to be about 50 more than last year.

A full - day's schedule will be observed at the city schools with starting and dismissal times the same as last year, Supt. Ralph W. Betts said.

High School pupils will report at 8:40 a. m. and will be dismiss-

Radar Check Planned In City's School Zones

Police will use radar timing equipment periodically to make certain that motorists observe the 20-mile speed limit in school zones after classes resume Wednesday for the 1958-59 term, Safety-Service Director Dan Maggianetti warned today.

The checks will be made without warning and without a specific schedule. The director also warned motorists to be particularly careful for young pedestrians when schools resume. In play and excitement, youngsters sometimes forget about traffic and dart into the street suddenly, he said.

Union Will Discuss Race Track Job Offer

Officials of Race Track Local Union 101 are scheduled to confer Tuesday on proposals offered by Waterford Park for the settlement of a nine - week old strike involving mutuel window employees.

The track employs 140 mutuel window clerks and 97 joined the July strike of the local in attempting to organize the crews. The track reportedly offered 40 of the jobs to union members but the local seeks 80 with clerks to work on a rotating schedule so each will draw the same amount.

The track solicited applications for women for the mutuel jobs and 120 showed up Tuesday but their employment has been held up pending outcome of the negotiations with the union.

Notes Written By Mute Save $2 On Penalty

A deaf mute arrested for intoxication managed to "out-talk" Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw and Assistant Solicitor Richard J. Clark in an exchange of notes at a hearing today, walking out for $14 instead of the usual $16.

The solicitor knew he faced a dilemma when he prepared for police court cases this morning and learned that the mute Michael Kuchar, was awaiting a hearing on an intoxication charge. A transient, Kuchar was arrested at 2:17 this morning in a Market St. tavern.

Clark wrote Kuchar a note explaining he was charged with disturbing the peace by being intoxicated. Kuchar wrote: "Guilty." When Kuchar's case came up for a hearing, he was allowed to read the affidavit against him. Again he indicated a guilty plea.

The climax came when Judge Brokaw wrote the defendant a note explaining his penalty was $10 and $6 costs.

"I only have $14," Kuchar wrote in reply.

"Pay the $14," the judge replied in another note. He could envision writer's cramp.

Then Kuchar wrote a note to explain he wanted a license to peddle cards in East Liverpool showing the deaf mute's sign language. The judge replied with a note explaining that was up to Mayor Fred P. Lawrence.

After paying his fine, Kuchar handed out his cards to court employes. Then he headed for the mayor's office—to write a note.

Family Of 5 Escapes Fire

$1,750 Loss Seen In Rural District Home

Fire forced a mother and her four children to flee through a window of their rural home near Wellsville early this morning.

About $1,750 damage resulted to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawk of the Old Irondale Rd. when some clothing hanging near an oil cook stove caught fire. Wellsville firemen responded to a call at 4:50 a. m.

The father was at work.

Mrs. Hawk had placed water to heat on an oil cook stove in the kitchen before retiring. She was awakened by the smell of smoke. Mrs. Hawk then aroused her four children and they crawled to safety out a bedroom window.

She took the children to a neighbor and notified firemen. Five men responded.

Firemen set the loss at $250 to the home, owned by Ernest Put-

Woman Slain, Search Opens For Her Son

Widow Found Dead In Vacant House By Minerva Police

MINERVA, Ohio (AP) — A woman found dead in an upstairs bedroom at her home here was identified today as Mrs. Junita Baxter Rutledge, a 60-year-old widow.

Identification was made by police Chief Donald McConahey, who said a necktie was tightened around the woman's neck and her feet were bound with a belt when the body was found late Friday night.

Police checked the home after neighbors reported smelling gas in the vicinity of Mrs. Rutledge's house and also noted that her front porch was cluttered with mail and newspapers. The gas company shut off the supply of natural gas to the Rutledge home, enabling police to search it.

Chief McConahey said Mrs. Rutledge, whose body was decomposed, had been dead about four or five days. He said she apparently had died of strangulation or asphyxiation. An autopsy was scheduled by Stark County Coroner E. B. Mozes.

Mrs. Rutledge had lived alone in the seven-room house since the death of her husband, James, in January, 1956.

The police chief said a 33-year-old son, James, who has been missing since Tuesday, was being sought for questioning.

The body was found in the only furnished room in the house, located at 104 North Liberty St. McConahey said Mrs. Rutledge was in the process of disposing of her furniture preparatory to going to California to live with a daughter, Mrs. Norma Johnson.

He discounted robbery as a motive for the suspected slaying.

Weirton Man Killed As Car Hits Trailer Rig

WEIRTON (AP) — George W. Jackson, 53, of Weirton was killed early today when his car smashed into the rear of a tractor trailer on U. S. 22 just inside the city limits.

Weirton police said the trailer rig was stopped at a traffic light when the accident occurred. The trailer driver was not hurt. The force of the crash knocked the truck about 15 feet.

Jackson, alone in the car, was dead on arrival at a Weirton hospital.

He was the city's fourth traffic victim of 1958.

Keys Co. Buys New Quarters

Firm To Move Into Donaldson Building

Purchase of the former Donaldson Chevrolet agency building on Market St. for the new home of the Keys Co. of W. 5th St. was announced today by Harry B. Keys, founder of the firm.

Keys Co., automotive and garage equipment distributors, serves most of nine district counties.

Mike Turk, Inc., auto agency at Walnut and E. 6th Sts., recently acquired the Chevrolet agency from the Donaldson firm and will operate it with the Buick and Cadillac agency.

The Trotter Co. originally operated the Chevrolet agency in the Market St. building, followed by the Stonesifer Co. which sold out to the Donaldson Co.

Keys purchased the building from the Trotter estate. The brick structure is three stories with basement.

Keys has been in business at the present location for 35 years. The building was erected for the firm in 1923. Keys employes 14 persons and serves 5 Eastern Ohio counties and parts of 2 counties each in nearby Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The Keys building, a one - story structure, is owned by Hart Larkins.

Keys will move Tuesday to the vacant Trotter Hardware Co. building on Dresden Ave., where it will operate temporarily until Turk can vacate the Donaldson building.

Red Chinese To 'Redouble' Islands Attack

Claim Nationalists Have Suffered Heavy Casualties In 8 Days

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Communist fire slacked off today after more than 12,000 shells were poured into the Nationalist-held Quemoy islands group in 24 hours, but Peiping threatened heavier bombardments to come.

The Communist ministry of national defense ordered its artillery units "to redouble their attack" on the islands just off the Chinese mainland, Peiping radio said. It claimed that heavy casualties had been inflicted on Nationalist troops in the eight-day bombardment.

Most military men on Formosa have concluded that the shelling is the prelude to a Communist attempt to capture the Quemoy group soon. The Nationalists say they're ready.

From early Friday until 2:31 a. m. today the Reds poured 12,345 shells into the islands, the Nationalist defense ministry said. Then they decreased the fire, hurling only 390 shells at the Nationalists until shortly after dawn when they switched to an occasional round of shells carrying propaganda leaflets.

Ministry officials said the relative lull might be just a prelude to heavier bombardments. They

Bank Employe Killed

Mexico City Riot Quelled By Police

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Students and oil workers with separate complaints united in five hours of rioting Friday before police quelled them with gunfire.

A bank employe was killed accidentally when a bullet fired at a mob smashed through a bank window. Hospital authorities said 33 persons were hospitalized with wounds, many from gunfire. Scores of others were known to have been injured by stones, clubs and tear gas grenades.

Most of the rioters were students ostensibly protesting poor bus service, and workers of Pemex, the government oil monopoly, who are involved in a union squabble that has no connection with the student complaints.

More trouble was feared at a student demonstration today that may attract sympathizing railway hands, telegraphers, teachers and oil workers. Student leaders predicted 100,000 persons would show up in a downtown plaza for the demonstration.

The leftist-led railway union, which has cheered all the dissident groups, raised the threat of another strike on the nationalized railways, paralyzed twice in recent months by wildcat walkouts. The Communist party, blamed by many as prime instigator of the riots, endorsed action by both the students and oil workers.

One bright spot for harassed authorities was an announcement by city bus drivers that they were postponing their strike slated for Sunday until after President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines' state of the union address Monday. The drivers voted to strike in retaliation for student action that caused the government to cancel a half-cent fare boost, costing them a promised salary raise.

2 Dogs Survive Rocketing

Soviet Moves Step Closer To Space Trip For Human

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow's "bring 'em back alive" rocketing of two dogs 281 miles into space has moved her a step closer to achieving the same feat with man. But Soviet scientists have stressed there is still a long way to go.

The Soviet government announced Friday night it had shot two dogs into space aboard a one-stage rocket and brought them back in good health.

This is more than twice the highest altitude achieved in similar experiments reported in the Soviet Union. But it is only another in a long series of tests which Russian scientists say must precede any Soviet attempt to risk human life by propelling man into space.

First reports from the latest experiment gave no indication that a similar attempt with a human being was in the offing.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the two female dogs—named Belyanka and Peostraya — were sent aloft Wednesday from a spot in European Russia and landed just where the scientists intended.

Tass said the dogs, weighing 18 pounds each, were placed in a hermetically sealed cabinet. It did not indicate how they came down. Previous reports on similar Soviet experiments over the past three years have said the dogs were parachuted down.

The dogs came down by parachute, Lt. Gen. Anatoly A. Blagonravov told the London Daily Mirror by telephone from Moscow. The Soviet scientist said they were aloft 25 minutes and "were quite happy during the flight.")

The experiment was strictly an up-and-down operation. There has been no known Soviet attempt to place a dog in orbit since Laika went up in Sputnik II last Nov. 3. She died after one week.

As in the case of all dogs in Russia's space test kennel, Belyanka and Peostraya underwent months of rigorous training on the ground and in short flights before the big day.

And, as in all official reports of such experiments, the two dogs were said to be in fine shape when they emerged from their capsules back on earth.

Soviet Chief Okays Parley On A-Test Ban

Says It Might Hold Some Before Global Suspension Set Up

LONDON (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev has agreed to East-West talks on banning nuclear weapons tests, but he indicated the Soviet Union might break its own ban and hold some more tests before an international suspension is arranged.

Moscow radio said Friday night the Soviet Premier accepted a week-old U.S.-British proposal to begin talks Oct. 31.

The United States suggested holding them at U.N. headquarters in New York, but said Geneva would be acceptable. Khrushchev said Geneva would be most suitable.

The Western proposal was made Aug. 22, one day after Communist and Western scientists agreed in Geneva that a worldwide system of enforcing a ban by detecting nuclear exposions was "technically feasible." Khrushchev endorsed this scientific conclusion, which did not involve a political decision on actually banning tests.

Both the United States and Britain, who have nuclear test series going at present, offered to suspend their tests for a trial year from the beginning of political talks. They stipulated, however, that this would depend on Russia's continuing her own unilateral suspension of tests.

The Soviet Union announced March 31, shortly after ending a lengthy series of nuclear tests, that it had halted all nuclear explosions but would feel free to

The Western proposal was made Aug. 22, one day after Communist and Western scientists agreed in Geneva that a worldwide system of enforcing a ban by detecting nuclear exposions was "technically feasible." Khrushchev endorsed this scientific conclusion, which did not involve a political decision on actually banning tests.

Both the United States and Britain, who have nuclear test series going at present, offered to suspend their tests for a trial year from the beginning of political talks. They stipulated, however, that this would depend on Russia's continuing her own unilateral suspension of tests.

The Soviet Union announced March 31, shortly after ending a lengthy series of nuclear tests, that it had halted all nuclear explosions but would feel free to

6 Injured In 3 Road Mishaps

County Patrol Lists 3 Separate Accidents

LISBON — Six were injured in three separate accidents over the county Friday and early today, according to the State Highway Patrol.

Richard Oyster, 15, of Alliance received a compound fracture of the left leg when the motor scooter on which he was a passenger wrecked at 3:30 a. m. today on Route 62 four miles west of Salem. The scooter was driven by John L. Reeves, 17, of Beloit R. D. 2.

Four were hurt when cars driven by T. J. Irwin, 24, of Kent and Jeff Wahn of Darlington collided head-on at 10:50 p. m. Friday on Route 14 just east of Unity.

Richard Hansen, 16, of Kent, a passenger in Irwin's car, suffered contusions of the chest and fractured ribs. Another passenger in the Irwin car, William Widmer, 19, of New Waterford R. D. 1, received abrasions of the forehead.

Carl Jessop, 28, of Poland suffered contusions and abrasions of the head, a laceration of the scalp and a fractured skull when he rolled his car into an embankment on Route 14 four miles east of Columbiana Friday at 9:10 p. m. Officers said he was traveling too fast to negotiate a curve. He will be cited for reckless operation.

All injured were taken to Salem City Hospital.

Youth Lost In Mountains 2 Days Found Safe, Calm

PINEDALE, Wyo. (AP) — A poised youth lost for two days on a hike in western Wyoming's mountain country was found safe and calm late Friday.

His rescuers brought 15-year old Christopher Reuss, son of Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D-Wis), here for a reunion with his mother. He greeted her with a jaunty "Hi, mom. Where's the band?"

Young Reuss and two young companions strayed from a hiking party last Wednesday near 13,730-foot Fremont Peak, Wyoming's highest, about 30 miles north of here.

An 11-year-old brother, Michael, and Mark Millikan, 13, were found Thursday. Millikan is the son of Mrs. Claire Millikan of Berkeley, Calif.

The boys were members of an annual summer expedition by the Sierra Mountain Club, comprised largely of Californians. The three took the wrong trail Wednesday afternoon.

The youngsters had a small supply of food, and supplemented it with wild berries and pine needle tea. With a good supply of matches, they lighted fires at night to warm themselves and to attract the attention of the pack crews they knew must have been searching for them.

One by one, the boys separated early Thursday. The youngest boy was the first one to be found. Mark was found by the same pack crew later in the day.

Christopher, tired and hungry, was found on a rough trail Friday afternoon.

After his reunion with his mother, his brother and two sisters, Anne, 6, and Jackie, 8, he plunged into a hot bath and then ate his second steak dinner in three hours. He was fed first at a ranch near the remote scene where he was found.

The brothers' father is attending a conference in Switzerland.

Shouts Cause Man's Arrest

Driver, Passenger Both Face Charges

When a 23-year-old motorist was arrested early today for operating an auto without a driver's license, his passenger was taken into custody, too, for shouting so loud that police thought he was violating the city's anti-noise ordinance.

The driver, James Palcaus, 1410 Lisbon St., forfeited a $31 bond this morning in Municipal Court. His passenger, Robert Williamson, 22, of 359 Avondale St., also forfeited $31 on the charge of disturbing the peace by shouting. The two were taken into custody at 1:03 a. m. at Market and 4th Sts., police said.

Raymond Shamp, 38, of Shippingport was fined $300 and costs and given a 10-day jail term when he pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated. His right to drive in Ohio also was suspended for six months. Shamp was arrested at 4:27 this morning on Putnam St., police said.

Charles C. Fluno, 47, of 1025 Wedgewood St., was fined $150 and costs on a charge of being in physical control of an auto while intoxicated. He also pleaded guilty. Fluno was taken into custody at 1 a. m. today at Jackson and W. 6th Sts., police said.

Two more drivers forfeited $16 bonds on charges filed earlier in the week by the State Highway Patrol. John H. Davis, 210 7th St., Wellsville, was cited Thursday morning for driving 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. Edward M. Hemphill of 6 Thompson Pl. was arrested at 11:30 p. m. Wednesday for driving without an operator's permit. He also was cited on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd.

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Frank L. Coombs, past monarch of the Al Sirat Grotto in Cleveland, is the new president of the Ohio State Grotto Assn.

He was elected Friday night at the association's 34th annual convention to succeed Leslie C. Jones of Canton.

Others elected were Norman M. Clark, Erie, Pa., first vice president; Fred J. Heusser, Amherst, Ohio, second vice president; Frank M. Siple, Lima, third vice president; Emil C. Werner, Cincinnati, sergeant-at-arms; Albert A. Burden, Dayton, trustee for one year, and James R. Tarson, Akron, trustee for two years. William C. Schmitt of Cleveland was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Crossing Guards Given Equipment

Eight women school crossing guards reported to City Hall Friday to receive instructions and the first items of equipment they will use when they go to work Wednesday to protect youngsters against traffic on their way to and from classes.

Safety - Service Director Dan Maggianetti and Police Chif Americo Radeschi welcomed the guards Mrs. Joseph Tarver, Mrs. Evelyn Miller, Mrs. Isabelle Howell, Mrs. Betty Berg, Mrs. Nanetta Buchanan, Mrs. Helen Morrison, Mrs. Pearl Jackson and Mrs. Loretta Flasco.

Robert W. Campbell of the local office of the Columbiana County Motor Club, presented the women with badges and distinctive belts to wear on duty and "stop" placards to halt traffic. Later, the motor club will present the guards with whistles and raincoats.

Appointment of another guard was announced today by Mayor Fred P. Lawrence. She is Mrs. Kathleen Ice of Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., who will serve at Neville School.

Another school crossing guard will be named to complete the force. The women will report again Tuesday for training directed by Campbell and Patrolman William W. Dunn of the police department Special Service Bureau.

Agreement Reached On Pension Program

CANTON, Ohio (AP)— Timken Roller Bearing Co. plants in three cities — Canton, Columbus and Zanesville — will open Tuesday. A 38-day strike by the United Steelworkers ended Friday night with agreement on a one-year pension program.

The plan, described by John S. Johns, USW district director and the chief union negotiator, as "one of the finest pension agreements throughout the country and Canada," still must be ratified by the members of the Columbus local today.

Canton and Zanesville locals approved terms of the agreement in meetings Friday night.

Nine thousand employees had been on strike. Members at Wooster, who did not strike, also will participate in the new pension plan.

The program includes:

Higher monthly pension payments up to $2.50 a month for each year's service up to 30 years; higher disability pension payments; optional retirement at age 60; and a lump sum cash pension payment to employes 40 years old with at least 15 years service if laid off and not recalled within two years.

In addition, Johns said, the company gave the union an oral promise that employes would be returned to their jobs without any prejudice for strike activities.

"This pact is much better than some found in major steel contracts," Johns said.

The strike, which started July 23 after a three-year contract expired July 18, was the first by steel workers at Timken since 1952. Negotiations had started in early June.

Rear Adm. Liu Hoh-tu, the ministry's official spokesman, said there would be no question of the Nationalists' abandoning the Tan islets in the Quemoy group or any other offshore islands no matter how heavily they were shelled. The leaflets presumably were the standard surrender-or-die threats.

The tiny Tans, 2½ miles south of the Communist port of Amoy, which they help blockade, were the target Friday of a record 7,120 shells, according to the ministry. They are considered the most likely point for a Communist invasion attempt.

"If the Reds think they are going to cow the defenders of the offshore islands by bombardments, they are mistaken," the admiral said. "If they want the islands, they will have to come over and get them—if they can."

Friends will be received Sunday and Monday from 7 to 9 p. m. and Monday afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. at the funeral home.

Auto Industry Strikes Keep 13,000 Idle

DETROIT (AP)—Wildcat strikes in the auto industry idled more than 13,000 workers today.

After 23 weeks of negotiations, bargaining teams appeared to be no closer to a solution than when they started talks on new contracts.

The walkouts hit plants of all big three auto makers. United Auto Workers spokesmen said they resulted from local disputes, mainly over the issues of time off the job allotted committeemen to handle grievances.

As fast as one strike was called off, another walkout began.

Chrysler accused the UAW of harassment tactics which it said if continued would seriously affect 1959 model production at three Detroit area plants. It said thousands of workers may be kept off the job because of the strikes.

General Motors plants were closed in several cities, including the Buick-Oldsmobile - Pontiac assembly plant in Kansas City, Kan., and the Buick dynaflow works in Flint.

Workers at two Fisher body plants in Grand Rapids, Mich., returned to work, and UAW members at a Fisher plant in Hamilton, Ohio, also agreed to resume production.

A strike that had idled 5,000 at GM's Pontiac division in Pontiac ended Friday night. A union spokesman said they will return to their jobs Tuesday.

Three Ford plants in Cleveland were hit by work stoppages.

Contracts between the UAW and the Big Three expired over the Memorial Day weekend. Workers remained on the job without contracts during continuing negotiations.

Company offers to extend present agreements for two years were rejected by the union.

4 City Women At Church Event

Four members of the United Lutheran Church Women of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church were delegates to the 40th annual convention of the ULCW of the Pittsburgh Synod Wednesday and Thursday at Theil College at Greenville, Pa. Some 500 attended.

They were Mrs. Kenneth Scott and Mrs. Harold Bricker of East Liverpool and Mrs. Edwin Carson and Mrs. Walter Collins of Newell.

"Let Christ Be Magnified" was the theme. Mrs. Ruth Horting of Harrisburg, secretary of public assistance for Pennsylvania and chairman of the committee on recruitment and placement for the Division of Welfare for the National Lutheran Council was main speaker.

Sister Mildred Winter of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the Board of Deaconess Work of the denomination, led devotions.

Mrs. E. G. Price of Pittsburgh was retained as president and those elected were Mrs. Chester Bird of Monongahela, vice president; Mrs. William George of Apollo, recording secretary; Mrs. Ellwood Hauser of Youngstown, statistical secretary and Mrs. Charles Cable, treasurer.

At the banquet Wednesday night, Dr. Ralph Loew of Buffalo, president of the Board of Foreign Mission for the denomination, was speaker.

The 1959 convention will be held at Thiel the third week in August. A meeting of the West Conference of the Pittsburgh Synod will be held the third week in October.

Wellsville VFW To Fete Little League Champs

Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 5647 will fete its Little League baseball team at a banquet Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. at Meade's Restaurant. The team won the city championship.

Individual trophy awards will be presented. Mayor William J. Shoub will be guest speaker.

Other guests will include Roy Hodge, league president; William MacLean, team manager, and Bob Morehead, coach.

Anyone planning to attend should contact Nick Puch at LE 2-1650 or Albert O'Rourke at LE 2-2029.

Those wanting transportation to the restaurant should meet early at the post home.

City Woman Arrested On Numbers Charges

A woman identified as Mrs. Ella Lucille Prince Williams, 473 Mulberry St., East Liverpool, was arrested Friday in Midland and accused of numbers writing by Beaver County Detectives Russell Meskow and John Italia.

She pleaded not guilty at a hearing before Squire John Bell of Monaca and posted a $500 bond for a court appearance.

Detectives said she had a quantity of number slips in her possession. Detectives and State Police have made at least one number arrest each day since July.

Holiday Stops Oiling Project

Crews Will Resume Program Tuesday

Because the riverfront terminals of district suppliers are closed for the holiday weekend, the street department's oiling program was interrupted today, but the work will resume Tuesday, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

The terminal of the Allied Ashland Oil Co. at Wellsville, which has been furnishing the oil for the program, was closed Friday. However, the city's distributor truck obtained two loads at the plant of the Mississippi - Ohio Oil Terminal Co. on the River Rd. and was able to continue the work.

The Allied Ashland plant is open only four days a week — Monday through Thursday — Laughlin explained. The River Rd. terminal here also is closed today, he added.

Fifty - one streets are scheduled for oiling in the current project, which is being done by the city's own employes and equipment. Work earlier in the summer was let to a contractor.

The distributor truck worked Thursday in East End. Friday it covered some streets in the West End and Lincoln Ave. area. The crew is working first on streets that were shaped up by the city's equipment in anticipating of the oiling, Laughlin explained. The project also will cover some previously oiled streets where the material subsequently was washed away by heavy rains.

Music, Speeches To Mark Picnic For Democrats

Music, oratory and picnic fare comprise the "menu" for the district Democrats' picnic to be held Sunday at the VFW Club on Route 30, starting at noon.

Principal speakers will be Michael V. DiSalle, Stephen M. Young and Wayne L. Hays, with Don Gosney, Columbiana County chairman, slated to introduce all local candidates.

DiSalle, candidate for governor, will speak at 3, Young, candidate for U. S. senator, at 3:30, and Rep. Hayes seeking a new term in Congress, at 4.

Gosney will introduce county, state and district candidates at 4:30.

The musical program will begin at 1 with the Al Morris Dance band, followed by the "Great Scotts" at 2 and the "Dish Chords" at 2:30. Both singing groups are Barbershop Quartets.

Dinner at 5:30 will follow a novelty band program at 5, "Three Strings and a Miss". Women of the Democratic Club will serve dinner.

The welcoming committee includes Gosney, Don Burcham, East Liverpool party chairman, Larry Finlay, president of the Democratic club; Mrs. Lillian McKeever, chairwoman, and Mrs. James Glasco of the Democrat Women's auxiliary.

The picnic grounds will be open at noon.

While 2,800 Watch At Glenmoor Fete

A crowd of 2,800 viewed the parade in Glenmoor Friday night, highlighting the annual benefit carnival of the volunteer fire department. About 60 units, primarily fire trucks were entered.

Trophies were awarded Sebring for best equipped truck; Koppel, Pa., the unit traveling the greatest distance; Wellsville oldest truck in service; Liverpool Township, West, of LaCroft, most men in line; Leetonia, most auxiliary members in line; Austintown, comic outfit; Beaver Local, best band, and Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9285, best drill team.

Judges were George Hamilton of East Liverpool, Elmer Bailey of New Cumberland and O. P. McAdoo of Wellsville.

Fire Chief Kenneth Mills commended the Civil Defense police of the Wellsville and East Liverpool units for handling traffic. Cars had to be turned away from the carnival parking lot but the matter was handled without any trouble, he said.

A matinee was scheduled for today at the carnival on the Glenmoor athletic field Another matinee will be held Monday and the activities will conclude Monday night.

City Ministers Plan Meeting On Sept. 8

A special meeting of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association will be held Monday, Sept. 8, 11:30 a.m at Peterson's Restaurant to inaugurate their new season. The last was in June.

The guest speaker will be Medford Jones, Indianapolis evangelist.

Following luncheon, business will be conducted by the Rev. Russell C. Owens, president. Rev. Owens is pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Committees will be appointed.

Skate Leaves Oslo After Five-Day Visit

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The U.S. atomic submarine Skate left Oslo today after a five-day visit.

The commanding officer, Cmdr. James F. Calvert, sent a message thanking all Norwegians for the reception they gave him and his crew at Bergen last Saturday and at Oslo on their first landings after a voyage under the Arctic ice cap.

Calvert said earlier he would sail nonstop from Oslo to New London, Conn.

Clever Conversation Rolls Out Like The Dice

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — John Seven said he was eating an evening meal with his family when the telephone rang.

Replied Seven: "No, snake eyes."

Without hestitating, the voice declared: "Thanks, I'll roll again."

District Parks To Stay Open, Pools To Close

Labor Day will see the end of summer swimming in district parks but most of recreation centers will remain open for picnickers until the first frost.

The pools at Thompson Park and Lake Marwin on Radio Heights will close after Monday night.

William Bell, superintendent of Thompson Park, said picnic facilities will remain open to the public as long as weather permits. Most of the pavilion space has been reserved for Sunday and Monday but there still are many individual tables left.

The cool rainy weather cut the attendance at the pool this month, Bell said.

Picnic facilities at Lake Marwin also will remain open as long as weather permits. Fishing, boating and swimming will conclude Monday. The lake will be partially drained for repairs to the pool.

Tomlinson Run State Park's swimming pool near Pughtown will also close Labor Day. However, the recreation facilities at the 1,353-acre park will remain open as long as weather permits.

Labor Day visitors may fish in the park's 28-acre lake or take advantage of many picnic facilities and boating. Some 187,000 attended the park in 1957.

E. S. Radcliffe, superintendent of Raccoon Creek State Park, said that the park's lake will be closed for the season for swimming at 7 p. m. Monday.

Radcliffe said the picnic areas would be open as long as visitors can "stand the weather." He said they should bring firewood or charcoal for fires.

Midland's Veteran Memorial Swimming Pool will close for the season about 9 p. m. Labor Day.

The season at Rock Springs Park will close following a full schedule Sunday and Monday when the Chester amusement park will open at 1 p. m. No weekend programs are slated after Monday.

Races, contests and a water show will highlight the Labor Day program at East Palestine City Park where the 18th season will close Monday, Thomas Quilter, director said.

A sports program is being planned for youths under 12 at the park Monday at 10 a. m. Games and other contests are scheduled.

Campfire Girls and others will stage a water show at the park pool at 7:30 p. m.

Quilter said picnic facilities, tennis courts, horseshoe pits and baseball diamonds will be available for use during the fall while weather permits.

The Sadie P. VanFossan Memorial Swimming Pool at Lisbon will end its third season Labor Day. The pool will be drained Tuesday and the building will be closed until Memorial Day next year.

G. C. Rauch, chairman of the Pool Commission, said the pool has had a poor summer. A report of receipts and expenditures will be prepared by the commission after the closing.

Scattered Showers To Interrupt Holiday

Scattered thundershowers are forecast for Sunday, indicating a damp interruption to the long Labor Day weekend. But temperatures will remain hot and humid.

The Ohio Weather Bureau's five-day forecast says there may be more scattered showers about Monday or Tuesday, so picknickers better take along an umbrella for that family outing.

Repairs Of Palestine Power Plant Finished

EAST PALESTINE — Emergency repairs were completed Thursday at the municipal light plant after the breakdown of a coal conveyer system in the boiler room earlier in the week.

During the shutdown, members of the street crew served on an emergency basis as firemen. Many complaints of residents were received over the heavy volume of fly ash from the light plant while the boiler was out. The boiler will be restored to service in a day or two.

The emergency prevented the street crew from the cleanup work following last Sunday's heavy rain. Other city workers handled the cleanup Thursday.

The street crew returned Thursday to the paving project on W. Grant St., near the senior high school in efforts to complete the job before the opening of school.

Striking Auto Workers Called To Sunday Talks

CLEVELAND (AP) — Striking United Automobile Workers at three Ford Motor Co. plants in suburban Brook Park have been called to a special meeting Sunday to discuss their unauthorized walkout.

The Executive Committee of Local 1250 called the meeting after receiving a petition signed by 500 members, asking for a session to "clarify" the issues involved in the work stoppage.

The strike directly involves 2,100 employes. It started last Sunday night when members voted to halt work in protest against the firing of a union committeeman for alleged insubordination.

Schools

ed at 3:47, while Westgate Junior High will start at 8:25 a. m. and dismiss at 3:01.

Classes at East Junior High will start at 8:40 and dismiss at 3:55.

Elementary school will generally observe hours of 9 a. m. to 12 and 1:10 to 3:40 p. m. with some possible minor adjustments due to bus schedules.

The bus schedule will also remain the same as last year, Betts said. The cafeteria at Westgate School will operate the first day.

Homeroom assignments of East Junior High School students have been posted at the main entrance of the school and at the Adkins Furniture & Appliance Store of Harvey Ave. and the Friendly Beauty Shop of Mulberry St.

Assignments for Westgate elementary students have already been announced while Westgate Junior High students will report to the same homerooms they had last term. Seventh graders and new students will report to the school auditorium.

High School students were advised of their room assignments by postcard.

Principals of the city schools will meet Tuesday morning at 9 at the Westgate Library for a planning session, Betts said.

A general meeting of all teachers will be held at the Westgate all - purpose room at 10 a. m. Meetings of instructors at the separate buildings will be held in the afternoon at a time to be announced, Betts said.

There still is a need for a girls' physical education instructor along with a teacher at East Junior High.

Betts also said there will be a need for qualified substitute teachers, and any man or woman qualified can register with him. The pay of substitutes has been increased from $12 to $14 a day, he reminded.

The distribution of the students has been planned so that there is expected to be very few transfers, although the enrollment of 354 at Horace Mann School may result in the transfer of some sixth graders to Neville or Garfield Schools. Horace Mann will have one more classroom than last year.

All schools are ready for the start of classes, according to Betts, who said the custodians have placed the buildings and grounds in top condition.

The 32 new instructors in the city schools include Ronald Boris, Betty Cooper, Stanley Kamarados, Nunzio Polichene, Charles Stetser and Mitchell Smith at the high school; Ruth Jean VanDyne at East Junior High.

William Blair, Bryce Browning, William Burlingame, William Nick Capozzoli, Peter D'Argenzio, Ed Galloway, Gladys Hyder, Mark Shelton, Elizabeth Traubert, Dale Wilson and Robert Neuwirth at Westgate Junior High.

Edna Colmer at Westgate Elementary, Dorothy Lynch and Richard Johnston at Horace Mann, Velma Poole and Nellie Harper at LaCroft, Helen Hannahs and Esther Bryan at Lincoln, Manavelle Cooley, Judy Pillo and Ruth Ladzinske at McKinley; Herbert Bell at Neville, Flora Anna Moore and Rachel Delaney at Pleasant Heights and Barbara Hoover at Taft.

Sister Mary St. Rose, in her fourth year as principal at St. Aloysius, said regular classes will begin Wednesday, after the half-day session Tuesday.

Runaway Auto Breaks Up Party And Kills Girl, 4

MOBERLY, Mo. (AP)—A runaway car broke up a backyard birthday party and killed a 4-year-old girl Friday.

The victim was Mary Diane Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davidson.

Witnesses said the car went out of control as it turned a corner. It leaped a curb, hit a tree, then roared backward, hit a parked car and plowed into the Davidson's back yard. The child, on her tricycle, was struck just before the car smashed into another tree and stopped.

Mary Diane and five neighbor children were celebrating the birthday of her brother, Joey, 6.

The driver of the car was Mrs. Lulu Chamier, 75, widow of Arthur B. Chamier, prominent Moberly lawyer, and mother of Richard J. Chamier, former state senator.

Mrs. Chamier suffered a nose fracture, bruises and shock. She was hospitalized.

Convictions Upheld In Bank Robbery Case

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The convictions of George Albert Fouts, 56, and Virgil (Doc) Summers, 36, charged with the $4,500 robbery of the Citizens Bank at Ansonia, Ohio, in 1945, has been upheld by the Sixth District Court of Appeals.

Both men served 10 years in federal prison for the $10,000 robbery of a Dayton tavern owner, and did not face trial in the Ansonia robbery until about a year ago.

They were convicted, but appealed on the grounds they were not given a speedy trial. Both men have been free on bond pending the district court's decision.

Missile Fired On 6,000-Mile Ocean Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Snark guided missile blazed skyward early today on a 6,000 mile flight across the Atlantic.

The Snark, the nation's only operational intercontinental weapon, streaked over the ocean with a flash of orange flame.

In seconds the red-coated missile disappeared over the horizon.

The Air Force announced only that a Snark was launched. The results of the test usually are secret.

The Snark will soon become an operational missile across the nation. The first Snark launching site is scheduled to be set up at Presque Isle, Maine.

It was the second Snark launching during the week. Last Wednesday another of the Northrup-developed missiles blasted aloft.

However, Wednesday's flight was short-lived, it was learned, because the Snark ran into the buffeting winds of hurricane Daisy and plunged into the sea at the halfway mark of its test flight.

More than 60 Snarks have been launched since the test series began.

Last month, the first military launching of the missile was conducted by the 555th Strategic Missile Squadron.

The Snark travels at a snail's pace as far as missiles go—about 600 m. p. h. — but it has amazing accuracy over intercontinental range.

Hammondsville Church Lowered For Remodeling

HAMMONDSVILLE - - Sunday morning worship services will be held in the American Legion Home while construction continues on the Methodist Church which is being lowered from its present two-story structure into one floor with a basement.

Sunday School tomorrow will convene at 10 a. m. with McKinley Crook, superintendent, in charge, while preaching services will begin at 11.

The Rev. Taylor Carson of the Pittsburgh area, brother of Mrs. Bessie Sivard of Hammondsville, will present the sermon.

The R. I. Sickafoose Contracting Co., of Magnolia is planning to begin digging the new basement after the first floor was removed this week by members of the congregation.

The second story is presently hoisted on giant timbers and will be lowered later to ground level. The congregation recently launched a $10,000 fund drive to finance the remodeling of the 75-year-old church. The Rev. W. J. Smart is pastor.

First U.S. Unified Command Established

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first unified command setup in the reorganization of the armed services will become effective Sept. 15 with the establishment of the U.S. European Command.

The Defense Department, announcing this Friday, said it will be headed by Air Force Gen. Lauris Norstad at Paris.

Two other unified commands will be created Dec. 1. The complete transition to the new system will be completed Jan. 1 with the formation of five other commands.

The Defense Department said President Eisenhower approved these reorgapization steps in keeping with plans to coordinate land, sea and air forces.

Pleads Innocent

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Carl Lilly, 52, parttime bartender of nearby Fosters, pleaded innocent Friday to two second-degree murder indictments growing out of a tavern shooting last July 27. Common Pleas Judge Warren Young set bond at $10,000. Police quoted Lilly saying the victims, John Lewis Jr., 31, and James H. Sykes, 34, of Loveland Park, attacked him with knives and he fired to defend himself.

The United States Coast Guard was founded in 1790. It was proposed by Alexander Hamilton, then George Washington's Sceretary of the Treasury.

Auto Industry Strikes Keep 13,000 Idle

DETROIT (AP)—Wildcat strikes in the auto industry idled more than 13,000 workers today.

After 23 weeks of negotiations, bargaining teams appeared to be no closer to a solution than when they started talks on new contracts.

The walkouts hit plants of all big three auto makers. United Auto Workers spokesmen said they resulted from local disputes, mainly over the issues of time off the job allotted committeemen to handle grievances.

As fast as one strike was called off, another walkout began.

Chrysler accused the UAW of harassment tactics which it said if continued would seriously affect 1959 model production at three Detroit area plants. It said thousands of workers may be kept off the job because of the strikes.

General Motors plants were closed in several cities, including the Buick-Oldsmobile - Pontiac assembly plant in Kansas City, Kan., and the Buick dynaflow works in Flint.

Workers at two Fisher body plants in Grand Rapids, Mich., returned to work, and UAW members at a Fisher plant in Hamilton, Ohio, also agreed to resume production.

A strike that had idled 5,000 at GM's Pontiac division in Pontiac ended Friday night. A union spokesman said they will return to their jobs Tuesday.

Three Ford plants in Cleveland were hit by work stoppages.

Contracts between the UAW and the Big Three expired over the Memorial Day weekend. Workers remained on the job without contracts during continuing negotiations.

Company offers to extend present agreements for two years were rejected by the union.

4 City Women At Church Event

Four members of the United Lutheran Church Women of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church were delegates to the 40th annual convention of the ULCW of the Pittsburgh Synod Wednesday and Thursday at Theil College at Greenville, Pa. Some 500 attended.

They were Mrs. Kenneth Scott and Mrs. Harold Bricker of East Liverpool and Mrs. Edwin Carson and Mrs. Walter Collins of Newell.

"Let Christ Be Magnified" was the theme. Mrs. Ruth Horting of Harrisburg, secretary of public assistance for Pennsylvania and chairman of the committee on recruitment and placement for the Division of Welfare for the National Lutheran Council was main speaker.

Sister Mildred Winter of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the Board of Deaconess Work of the denomination, led devotions.

Mrs. E. G. Price of Pittsburgh was retained as president and those elected were Mrs. Chester Bird of Monongahela, vice president; Mrs. William George of Apollo, recording secretary; Mrs. Ellwood Hauser of Youngstown, statistical secretary and Mrs. Charles Cable, treasurer.

At the banquet Wednesday night, Dr. Ralph Loew of Buffalo, president of the Board of Foreign Mission for the denomination, was speaker.

The 1959 convention will be held at Thiel the third week in August. A meeting of the West Conference of the Pittsburgh Synod will be held the third week in October.

City Woman Arrested On Numbers Charges

A woman identified as Mrs. Ella Lucille Prince Williams, 473 Mulberry St., East Liverpool, was arrested Friday in Midland and accused of numbers writing by Beaver County Detectives Russell Meskow and John Italia.

She pleaded not guilty at a hearing before Squire John Bell of Monaca and posted a $500 bond for a court appearance.

Detectives said she had a quantity of number slips in her possession. Detectives and State Police have made at least one number arrest each day since July.

Holiday Stops Oiling Project

Crews Will Resume Program Tuesday

Because the riverfront terminals of district suppliers are closed for the holiday weekend, the street department's oiling program was interrupted today, but the work will resume Tuesday, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

The terminal of the Allied Ashland Oil Co. at Wellsville, which has been furnishing the oil for the program, was closed Friday. However, the city's distributor truck obtained two loads at the plant of the Mississippi - Ohio Oil Terminal Co. on the River Rd. and was able to continue the work.

The Allied Ashland plant is open only four days a week — Monday through Thursday — Laughlin explained. The River Rd. terminal here also is closed today, he added.

Fifty - one streets are scheduled for oiling in the current project, which is being done by the city's own employes and equipment. Work earlier in the summer was let to a contractor.

The distributor truck worked Thursday in East End. Friday it covered some streets in the West End and Lincoln Ave. area. The crew is working first on streets that were shaped up by the city's equipment in anticipating of the oiling, Laughlin explained. The project also will cover some previously oiled streets where the material subsequently was washed away by heavy rains.

Music, Speeches To Mark Picnic For Democrats

Music, oratory and picnic fare comprise the "menu" for the district Democrats' picnic to be held Sunday at the VFW Club on Route 30, starting at noon.

Principal speakers will be Michael V. DiSalle, Stephen M. Young and Wayne L. Hays, with Don Gosney, Columbiana County chairman, slated to introduce all local candidates.

DiSalle, candidate for governor, will speak at 3, Young, candidate for U. S. senator, at 3:30, and Rep. Hayes seeking a new term in Congress, at 4.

Gosney will introduce county, state and district candidates at 4:30.

The musical program will begin at 1 with the Al Morris Dance band, followed by the "Great Scotts" at 2 and the "Dish Chords" at 2:30. Both singing groups are Barbershop Quartets.

Dinner at 5:30 will follow a novelty band program at 5, "Three Strings and a Miss". Women of the Democratic Club will serve dinner.

The welcoming committee includes Gosney, Don Burcham, East Liverpool party chairman, Larry Finlay, president of the Democratic club; Mrs. Lillian McKeever, chairwoman, and Mrs. James Glasco of the Democrat Women's auxiliary.

The picnic grounds will be open at noon.

While 2,800 Watch At Glenmoor Fete

A crowd of 2,800 viewed the parade in Glenmoor Friday night, highlighting the annual benefit carnival of the volunteer fire department. About 60 units, primarily fire trucks were entered.

Trophies were awarded Sebring for best equipped truck; Koppel, Pa., the unit traveling the greatest distance; Wellsville oldest truck in service; Liverpool Township, West, of LaCroft, most men in line; Leetonia, most auxiliary members in line; Austintown, comic outfit; Beaver Local, best band, and Wellsville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9285, best drill team.

Judges were George Hamilton of East Liverpool, Elmer Bailey of New Cumberland and O. P. McAdoo of Wellsville.

Fire Chief Kenneth Mills commended the Civil Defense police of the Wellsville and East Liverpool units for handling traffic. Cars had to be turned away from the carnival parking lot but the matter was handled without any trouble, he said.

A matinee was scheduled for today at the carnival on the Glenmoor athletic field Another matinee will be held Monday and the activities will conclude Monday night.

City Ministers Plan Meeting On Sept. 8

A special meeting of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association will be held Monday, Sept. 8, 11:30 a.m at Peterson's Restaurant to inaugurate their new season. The last was in June.

The guest speaker will be Medford Jones, Indianapolis evangelist.

Following luncheon, business will be conducted by the Rev. Russell C. Owens, president. Rev. Owens is pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Committees will be appointed.

District Parks To Stay Open, Pools To Close

Labor Day will see the end of summer swimming in district parks but most of recreation centers will remain open for picnickers until the first frost.

The pools at Thompson Park and Lake Marwin on Radio Heights will close after Monday night.

William Bell, superintendent of Thompson Park, said picnic facilities will remain open to the public as long as weather permits. Most of the pavilion space has been reserved for Sunday and Monday but there still are many individual tables left.

The cool rainy weather cut the attendance at the pool this month, Bell said.

Picnic facilities at Lake Marwin also will remain open as long as weather permits. Fishing, boating and swimming will conclude Monday. The lake will be partially drained for repairs to the pool.

Tomlinson Run State Park's swimming pool near Pughtown will also close Labor Day. However, the recreation facilities at the 1,353-acre park will remain open as long as weather permits.

Labor Day visitors may fish in the park's 28-acre lake or take advantage of many picnic facilities and boating. Some 187,000 attended the park in 1957.

E. S. Radcliffe, superintendent of Raccoon Creek State Park, said that the park's lake will be closed for the season for swimming at 7 p. m. Monday.

Radcliffe said the picnic areas would be open as long as visitors can "stand the weather." He said they should bring firewood or charcoal for fires.

Midland's Veteran Memorial Swimming Pool will close for the season about 9 p. m. Labor Day.

The season at Rock Springs Park will close following a full schedule Sunday and Monday when the Chester amusement park will open at 1 p. m. No weekend programs are slated after Monday.

Races, contests and a water show will highlight the Labor Day program at East Palestine City Park where the 18th season will close Monday, Thomas Quilter, director said.

A sports program is being planned for youths under 12 at the park Monday at 10 a. m. Games and other contests are scheduled.

Campfire Girls and others will stage a water show at the park pool at 7:30 p. m.

Quilter said picnic facilities, tennis courts, horseshoe pits and baseball diamonds will be available for use during the fall while weather permits.

The Sadie P. VanFossan Memorial Swimming Pool at Lisbon will end its third season Labor Day. The pool will be drained Tuesday and the building will be closed until Memorial Day next year.

G. C. Rauch, chairman of the Pool Commission, said the pool has had a poor summer. A report of receipts and expenditures will be prepared by the commission after the closing.

Repairs Of Palestine Power Plant Finished

EAST PALESTINE — Emergency repairs were completed Thursday at the municipal light plant after the breakdown of a coal conveyer system in the boiler room earlier in the week.

During the shutdown, members of the street crew served on an emergency basis as firemen. Many complaints of residents were received over the heavy volume of fly ash from the light plant while the boiler was out The boiler will be restored to service in a day or two.

The emergency prevented the street crew from the cleanup work following last Sunday's heavy rain. Other city workers handled the cleanup Thursday.

The street crew returned Thursday to the paving project on W. Grant St., near the senior high school in efforts to complete the job before the opening of school.

Striking Auto Workers Called To Sunday Talks

CLEVELAND (AP) — Striking United Automobile Workers at three Ford Motor Co. plants in suburban Brook Park have been called to a special meeting Sunday to discuss their unauthorized walkout.

The Executive Committee of Local 1250 called the meeting after receiving a petition signed by 500 members, asking for a session to "clarify" the issues involved in the work stoppage.

The strike directly involves 2,100 employes. It started last Sunday night when members voted to halt work in protest against the firing of a union committeeman for alleged insubordination.

Scattered Showers To Interrupt Holiday

Scattered thundershowers are forecast for Sunday, indicating a damp interruption to the long Labor Day weekend. But temperatures will remain hot and humid.

The Ohio Weather Bureau's five-day forecast says there may be more scattered showers about Monday or Tuesday, so picknickers better take along an umbrella for that family outing.

Schools

ed at 3:47, while Westgate Junior High will start at 8:25 a. m. and dismiss at 3:01.

Classes at East Junior High will start at 8:40 and dismiss at 3:55.

Elementary school will generally observe hours of 9 a. m. to 12 and 1:10 to 3:40 p. m. with some possible minor adjustments due to bus schedules.

The bus schedule will also remain the same as last year, Betts said. The cafeteria at Westgate School will operate the first day.

Homeroom assignments of East Junior High School students have been posted at the main entrance of the school and at the Adkins Furniture & Appliance Store of Harvey Ave. and the Friendly Beauty Shop of Mulberry St.

Assignments for Westgate elementary students have already been announced while Westgate Junior High students will report to the same homerooms they had last term. Seventh graders and new students will report to the school auditorium.

High School students were advised of their room assignments by postcard.

Principals of the city schools will meet Tuesday morning at 9 at the Westgate Library for a planning session, Betts said.

A general meeting of all teachers will be held at the Westgate all - purpose room at 10 a. m. Meetings of instructors at the separate buildings will be held in the afternoon at a time to be announced, Betts said.

There still is a need for a girls' physical education instructor along with a teacher at East Junior High.

Betts also said there will be a need for qualified substitute teachers, and any man or woman qualified can register with him. The pay of substitutes has been increased from $12 to $14 a day, he reminded.

The distribution of the students has been planned so that there is expected to be very few transfers, although the enrollment of 354 at Horace Mann School may result in the transfer of some sixth graders to Neville or Garfield Schools. Horace Mann will have one more classroom than last year.

All schools are ready for the start of classes, according to Betts, who said the custodians have placed the buildings and grounds in top condition.

The 32 new instructors in the city schools include Ronald Boris, Betty Cooper, Stanley Kamarados, Nunzio Polichene, Charles Stetser and Mitchell Smith at the high school; Ruth Jean VanDyne at East Junior High.

William Blair, Bryce Browning, William Burlingame, William Nick Capozzoli, Peter D'Argenzio, Ed Galloway, Gladys Hyder, Mark Shelton, Elizabeth Traubert, Dale Wilson and Robert Neuwirth at Westgate Junior High.

Edna Colmer at Westgate Elementary, Dorothy Lynch and Richard Johnston at Horace Mann, Velma Poole and Nellie Harper at LaCroft, Helen Hannahs and Esther Bryan at Lincoln, Manavelle Cooley, Judy Pillo and Ruth Ladzinske at McKinley; Herbert Bell at Neville, Flora Anna Moore and Rachel Delaney at Pleasant Heights and Barbara Hoover at Taft.

Sister Mary St. Rose, in her fourth year as principal at St. Aloysius, said regular classes will begin Wednesday, after the half-day session Tuesday.

The regular schedule will be classes from 8:40 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Cafeteria service at the Parochial School will start Sept. 9, she said.

Runaway Auto Breaks Up Party And Kills Girl, 4

MOBERLY, Mo. (AP)—A runaway car broke up a backyard birthday party and killed a 4-year-old girl Friday.

The victim was Mary Diane Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davidson.

Witnesses said the car went out of control as it turned a corner. It leaped a curb, hit a tree, then roared backward, hit a parked car and plowed into the Davidson's back yard. The child, on her tricycle, was struck just before the car smashed into another tree and stopped.

Mary Diane and five neighbor children were celebrating the birthday of her brother, Joey, 6.

The driver of the car was Mrs. Lulu Chamier, 75, widow of Arthur B. Chamier, prominent Moberly lawyer, and mother of Richard J. Chamier, former state senator.

Mrs. Chamier suffered a nose fracture, bruises and shock. She was hospitalized.

Convictions Upheld In Bank Robbery Case

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The convictions of George Albert Fouts, 56, and Virgil (Doc) Summers, 36, charged with the $4,500 robbery of the Citizens Bank at Ansonia, Ohio, in 1945, has been upheld by the Sixth District Court of Appeals.

Both men served 10 years in federal prison for the $10,000 robbery of a Dayton tavern owner, and did not face trial in the Ansonia robbery until about a year ago.

They were convicted, but appealed on the grounds they were not given a speedy trial. Both men have been free on bond pending the district court's decision.

Missile Fired On 6,000-Mile Ocean Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Snark guided missile blazed skyward early today on a 6,000 mile flight across the Atlantic.

The Snark, the nation's only operational intercontinental weapon, streaked over the ocean with a flash of orange flame.

In seconds the red-coated missile disappeared over the horizon.

The Air Force announced only that a Snark was launched. The results of the test usually are secret.

The Snark will soon become an operational missile across the nation. The first Snark launching site is scheduled to be set up at Presque Isle, Maine.

It was the second Snark launching during the week. Last Wednesday another of the Northrup-developed missiles blasted aloft.

However, Wednesday's flight was short-lived, it was learned, because the Snark ran into the buffeting winds of hurricane Daisy and plunged into the sea at the halfway mark of its test flight.

More than 60 Snarks have been launched since the test series began.

Last month, the first military launching of the missile was conducted by the 655th Strategic Missile Squadron.

The Snark travels at a snail's pace as far as missiles go—about 600 m. p. h. — but it has amazing accuracy over intercontinental range.

Hammondsville Church Lowered For Remodeling

HAMMONDSVILLE - - Sunday morning worship services will be held in the American Legion Home while construction continues on the Methodist Church which is being lowered from its present two-story structure into one floor with a basement.

Sunday School tomorrow will convene at 10 a. m. with McKinley Crook, superintendent, in charge, while preaching services will begin at 11.

The Rev. Taylor Carson of the Pittsburgh area, brother of Mrs. Bessie Sivard of Hammondsville, will present the sermon.

The R. I. Sickafoose Contracting Co., of Magnolia is planning to begin digging the new basement after the first floor was removed this week by members of the congregation.

The second story is presently hoisted on giant timbers and will be lowered later to ground level. The congregation recently launched a $10,000 fund drive to finance the remodeling of the 75-year-old church. The Rev. W. J. Smart is pastor.

First U.S. Unified Command Established

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first unified command setup in the reorganization of the armed services will become effective Sept. 15 with the establishment of the U.S. European Command.

The Defense Department announcing this Friday, said it will be headed by Air Force Gen. Lauris Norstad at Paris.

Two other unified commands will be created Dec. 1. The complete transition to the new system will be completed Jan. 1 with the formation of five other commands.

The Defense Department said President Eisenhower approved these reorganization steps in keeping with plans to coordinate land, sea and air forces.

Pleads Innocent

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Carl Lilly, 52, parttime bartender of nearby Fosters, pleaded innocent Friday to two second-degree murder indictments growing out of a tavern shooting last July 27. Common Pleas Judge Warren Young set bond at $10,000. Police quoted Lilly saying the victims, John Lewis Jr., 31, and James H. Sykes, 34, of Loveland Park, attacked him with knives and he fired to defend himself.

The United States Coast Guard was founded in 1790. It was proposed by Alexander Hamilton, then George Washington's Sceretary of the Treasury.

Teachers With Fixed Bayonets

Would not there finally come a September school opening n the 1960s when the prospect of sending U.S. troops to Southern schools again would be more than American citizens could stomach?

And would there not come a time, also, when even the prospect of keeping New York City schools open with police patrols would make Americans say, "Something has gone wrong with an educational system that uses soldiers with bayonets and policemen with clubs"?

No city, no school district, no state and no section of the country can afford to feel smug about their relative lack of trouble, either. The things that have happened in places like Little Rock, Ark., and Brooklyn, N.Y., can happen anywhere, any time.

THE EDUCATIONAL system of the United States is at the mercy of all who take it into their heads to oppose it, because the law says it must serve its opponents as well as its friends.

It must make a valiant, if foolish and futile, effort to educate the educable and the ineducable side by side. It must put the race-rioter and the bona fide student in the same classroom. It must keep a wary eye on the teen-age hoodlum with a switch-blade knife hidden in his pocket while it tries to make scholars out of moppets whose ancestors came to America to have a chance to go to school.

In the worst places, where the seamy side of the American dream is the only side anyone ever sees, the educational system of the United States must try to justify its existence under handicaps so unbearably heavy that they would be more fitting for prisons than schools.

They are, in fact, the handicaps of prison management.

They are the sullen, savage, ignorant hostility of destructionists to all constructive effort — and no school teacher or administrator should be asked to bear them.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE in the United States should be determined by desire. No pupil unwilling to live by the rules of the school should be allowed to set foot inside a school building. Education should be made the highest privilege that society bestows on its apprentice citizens — a preparation for their adult lives.

That is what it is to the vast majority of pupils. The trouble is being caused by a small minority. Even in Little Rock, all reports agree that a handful of obstreperous children egged on by adult irreconcilables caused the trouble last year and are waiting to repeat it this year.

For the school-age minority that needs soldiers with bayonets and policemen with clubs to keep it in line, let there be places of detention presided over by wardens and guards. But get the incorrigibles out of the classrooms. Get them out of contact with children who want to learn. Quit letting them give education in the United States a bad name and a handicap no educator should not be made to carry while there is an able-bodied baby-sitter left alive, even if it takes a bayonet or a club to get the job done.

Putting education on a voluntary basis could solve the problem in Little Rock. That's more than the law can do.

There Can Be No Doubt About It

The auto industry's hopes for a good year rest on four factors: Good models, good production, good times and good labor relations.

The same four factors will determine whether United Auto Workers has a good year, too. They also will determine what happens to the individual members of the big union.

There can be no doubt about it that Walter Reuther, the UAW president, has it easily within his power to wreck the livelihood of thousands of union members and the earning prospects of the automobile industry in 1959.

There can be no doubt about it, either, that the wildcat strikes which had idled 18,000 workers last week are an omen that UAW power will be used ruthlessly in the forthcoming effort to force auto industry management into knuckle-down negotiations at the outset of model changeovers.

This is the deferred climax of the stalled negotiations last May, when contracts with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler expired. The companies refused a three-month extension, and the union said it would work without a contract for three months. The time is up. The truce is over.

It can be a good year for auto manufacturers and their employes if they want it to be a good year — both groups. It can be a good year for members of UAW if their negotiators want it to be a good year — meaning the men who do what Reuther wants them to do. It can be a good year for all the towns that make materials for the auto industry. It can be a good year for everybody, if its prospects aren't knocked in the head before the old year has been nailed up on the barn door to dry.

Every so often, some economist sizes up the shape of things as they are and says hopefully that what this country needs is economic statesmanship.

An economic statesmen tries to take the long view. He never cuts off his nose to spite his face. He tries to give things a helpful push in the direction they need to move in to make progress. He does not play dog in the manager. He grants it is better to have $1 that has full buying power than $1 that has less than 50 per cent buying power. He doesn't kid himself that he is lifting himself off the ground when he pulls up on his own suspenders.

That's what the country needs. Fellows like that. Economic statesmen.

Pull The Weeds

A late summer hazard for motorists, pedestrians and cyclists — high weeds obstructing views at intersections — added another victim this week when a 10 - year - old Columbiana area boy was injured by a car.

The State Highway Patrol said the youth was riding a bike through an intersection when he was hit by a car whose driver could not properly see the intersecting road because of tall weeds.

This blinding of ordinarily safe road and street junctions by overgrown grass and weeds is not only a problem in the rural areas, but within some city limits.

Those responsible for street and highway maintenance should make sure intersections are cleared of such growth and motorists should be especially careful when passing through these dangerous junctions. Property owners on whose land such growths are located could take it upon themselves to clear the corners to provide a safe view of the sideroads.

Here is a case where action can solve a traffic problem easier than an attitude. The swing of a sickle is worth more than a thousand traffic slogans.

The Once Over

General Motors, largest U.S. corporation, has turned in its chief for a new model with more youthful lines and push-button vitality. Frederick C. Donner is the new chairman and chief executive.

He is the unemotional type. Able to get half a million a year in salary without showing excitement. He is a genius at figures. Can look at a business statement and at glance tell whether the auto industry needs stronger bumpers or prettier instruments boards. Has rare talent for swift decision whether power brakes and push buttons are required on autos or on company cashbox.

HIS HOBBY is reading Civil War books. Why not? Auto industry is a battle in which you never can be sure when it will be handy to imitate Sheridan's Ride and retreat from Bull Run.

There are times when it is best to sit quietly and await developments like McClellan. And days when it is time to storm the heights For the past year it has been a problem whether to list all-out aggressiveness as an "extra" or as "regular equipment."

Donner commutes daily on the 7:34 from Port Washington, L.I., and returns on the 6:15. This shows his ruggedness and determination. He is always looking ahead and doesn't depend on a windshield wiper.

JOHN F. GORDON, also a new top man, aspired to naval career and graduated from Annapolis. He decided to be a designer for GM. He is noted for ability to determine time for style changes and has yet to make a mistake by going too far for a Cadillac customer.

Donner got $442,500 in salary and bonuses last year. Gordon took down $338,700. When a fellow has been forced to keep wolf from door on that kind of money these days he is entitled to promotion and a raise in pay.

Both boys think the auto is here to stay. And are sure they made no mistake staying with it.

When Else?

After Memorial Day and Independence Day this year, readers wondered whatever happened to the fine old custom of showing the flag on important holidays.

It seems to us that readers have been wondering about this for such a long time we cannot be sure when it really was the fine old custom to display Old Glory.

But on the other hand, there can be no doubt that Old Glory deserves its "day in the sun," when an opportunity arises. No one is suggesting that ordinary householders should display flags day in and day out, but only that householders who possess flags should get them out a few times a year and admire them.

Labor Day is one of the opportunities for making a special effort to display the American flag. It is the last holiday of the summer season, the last holiday that occurs in flag-flying weather.

For a change, it would be nice to have readers wondering after Labor Day this year where all the flags came from that were to be seen for the looking. It might even be the beginning of a "fine old custom."

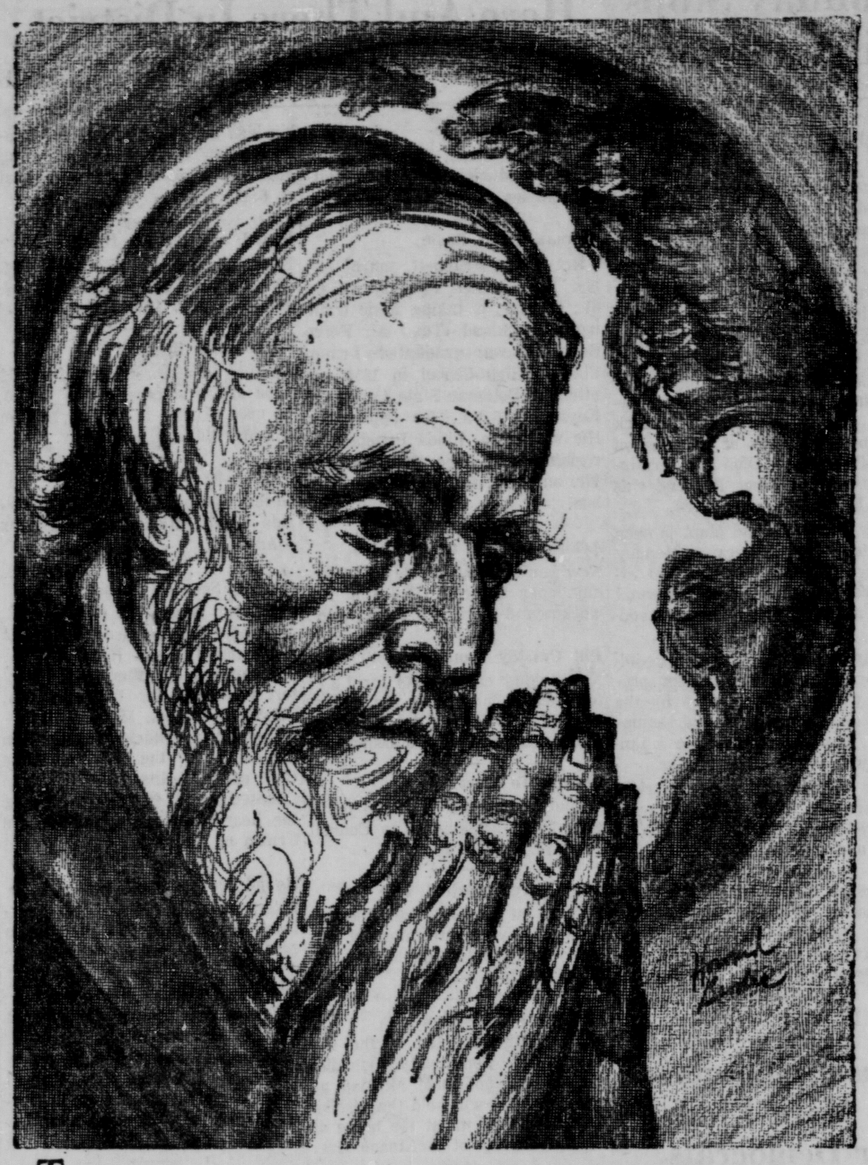
The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie



This is the story of how the faith of a merchant went around the world. At 16 he knelt in a drapery shop and gave his heart to God. It was mid-19th Century England, when men worked 17 hours a day and salesmen were unscrupulous. Yet, this former farm boy wrote, "I would be righteous and holy in business, doing it as for Christ." He sought Christian companionship and prayed after work with another employe. They were joined by others. Soon the youngest apprentice and the boss were interested.

The idea spread to other businesses, countries and continents, refreshing spirits, minds and bodies. Simultaneously, the merchant became the best salesman in London, a husband, father, head of his business, a wealthy man and a knight: Sir George Williams, founder of the Y.M.C.A.

'Reuther Definitely Decides To Strike'

By Victor Riesel

Chants of olden picket lines blend with the clatter of these typewriter keys as I pass on reports that Walter Reuther and his Auto Union's high command have definitely decided to strike —either General Motors in September or Ford in early October.

Victor Riesel

In the past 10 days Reuther has confided to his closest aides that he is himself not certain which of the two giant auto makers he believes should first be paralyzed.

The tipoff will be the summoning of the union's high council to Detroit. UAW Executive Board members are virtually sitting by with packed bags. The word now is that the Auto Union will strike a week or teh days after its top officials gather.

Many in the Auto Union leadership believe that if they are called into emergency conference in September, the picket lines will swing around the scores of GM plants. If the Executive Board does not meet until October, then the target will be Ford.

I report this as a war correspondent would report the strategy of a great army—for this will be large scale industrial warfare—not violent but bitter and exhaustive.

THE AUTO UNION'S strategy, as some high council members see it, will be to strike the corporation whose executives seem toughest in the current negotiations.

This will be done in the hope that the friendlier of the two companies might be willing to make a pact and isolate the other manufacturer.

Target date for striking General Motors, according to the union's top strategists, is Sept. 15. On that date the union expects GM to start producing its surprise new Chevrolet—which the union people call GM's "breadwinner."

There's a story behind this sleek new car. No one in the industry had expected GM to have so new a "Chevy" model. The 1958 model was new. It was not expected that GM would change its '59 Chevy so completely.

Naturally the other companies then had to plan some mighty tough competition for the new Chevrolet. Ford, for example, decided to take a few weeks longer and move its projected 1960 model up to 1959. This means some retooling but it means a bright new model too. The new Fords won't be rolling off the lines until early October.

So the union strategists will have to wait until then if they want to hit Ford as the critical moment. But which one do they want to hit, Ford or GM? That's the big question Reuther and the men around him ponder out loud these days.

SOME UNION tacticians argue that striking Ford is best because it is smaller than GM. Thus the 300,000 union members at GM could stay at work and help support the striking 125,000 Ford workers while they are on the bricks.

But, other old school braintrusters retort that nothing is won until you win it at GM. Therefore, they want the bigger corporation hit regardless of the cost—which would run some eight million dollars a week. This would wipe out the UAW strike fund in little more than a month.

This is, of course, still another possible stratagem. The union could strike the feeder parts plants. This would force the big companies to shut down soon enough. And the workers would get unemployment insurance, both public and private.

But whichever the Auto Union decides to hit, Reuther will have some powerful support.

This support has been generally overlooked by warm weather observers. The support is concentrated in a special committee appointed the other week by the AFL-CIO Executive Council to aid the UAW. Its seven members are among the shrewdest tacticians and lead the wealthiest unions in the land.

They are David Dubinsky, George Harrison, James Carey, Al Hayes, Dave McDonald, Joe Keenan and Joe Bierne. They themselves lead a total of 3,500,000 dues payers. These men are powerful national personalities. As a "standby committee" speaking for all labor, they'll make powerful allies for Reuther.

It would be nice if a pact is signed soon after Labor Day and the game called on account of good sense.

Trespassing Allowed

By Truman Twill

The dogs and I often go trespassing in the September twilight. It is no special treat for them, because they do it 365 days a year, but only in the early fall do I have the time to join them.

Last night, we went down the lane to the highway, up the hill on the highway to the top of the ridge and across the ridge to the place where our house and the front yard and the flower garden can be seen to the best advantage.

They are nestled below, in a notch in the long slope to the creek at the bottom. This is a familiar sight for the dogs, who go up on the ridge frequently, but unfortunately no one else ever sees the place from up there, except the people who work the next farm.

It is where Grandma Moses would sit if she were going to do one of her stylized landscapes. But if Grandma went there we'd have to arrange about the fences.

I know exactly how to get over a barbed wire fence without getting caught and without springing the fence. The dogs know exactly how far to scooch down to get under the bottom strand. But barbed wire is not for women with skirts or heavy-footed men.

Electric fences, on the other hand, are not for anybody. I barged into two of them last night in the dark, both times with my hands up so nothing touched the fence but my clothing. The fact is, I never have touched one with my hands. I am afraid of them. That, of course, is the principle of an electric fence. It is not a fence at all but a barrier of fear. Cattle learn to be afraid of the barrier when they touch their moist noses to the thin strand the first time; they never try that again, even if the current is off.

We stopped to marvel at a rock pile representing the land-clearing labor of generations of farmers. Some of the rocks are the size of two bushel baskets and must have taken hours of labor to move them. Rabbits hippity-hopped all over the place, showing their contempt for the dogs, which hunt entirely by scent and hardly would notice a rabbit if it ran between their legs. Benign cows looked at us solemnly out of the gathering mist. A screech owl was sounding his A in the woods. Crickets were warming up for the overture.

The pastures are thick and lush this year—not parched and sparse as they usually are by Labor Day. The new growth in the meadows where so much of the hay was spoiled by rain is coming fine. The moon and the stars are coming fine. The satellites are fine, too, so what? They won't make any difference—up there.

The twilight air is fragrant with the odor of dew, grass and fall wildflowers. The whole thing is June in reverse, with knowledge and maturity added. Everything is done now, the best there is to be. Autumn is the festival of maturity—nature's tribute to the known, instead of man's twittering uncertainty about the unknown. If June is the season of hope, September is the season of fulfilment. Only the justifiable hopes ever are fulfilled.

The dogs, I suspect, understand this better than their master, who never can spare the time to look at reality in twilight, until summer is over.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — From 1,600 to 1,700 pupils prepared to return to Midland public schools and Midland's new parochial school at the beginning of the fall term.

For the second time within a week, the flight of the dirigible Los Angeles from its Lakehurst, N.J., hangar to the Ohio Valley and East Liverpool was canceled because of bad weather.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The annual reunion of the Madison Township School was held at the YMCA camp at Pine Ridge.

A total of 170 WPA employes were at work on four different streets as the second week of the $414,850 blanket street project neared a close.

TEN YEARS AGO — J. Homer Browne of Lisbon was named chairman of Columbiana County's three-man draft board.

Twenty floats were entered in the annual homecoming parade at Salineville.

Integration Thoughts

By David Lawrence

Court Ignores Roots Of 14th Amendment

Thoughts that came to mind as the Supreme Court of the United States was hearing in extraordinary session arguments on whether or not to postpone its decree on "integration" of schools at Little Rock:

David Lawrence

Could the nine justices really be unmindful of the illegal manner by which the 14th amendment itself was inserted in the constitution and nevertheless order now that schools be "integrated" lest they be "violating" that amendment?

Could the nine justices be unaware that men equally conscientious — justices like Oliver Wendell Holmes, Louis Brandeis, Charles Evans Hughes and William Howard Taft, who sat on the high court — had again and again refused to rule that the 14th Amendment covered any federal authority to say who shall or shall not attend public schools and instead ruled that the states themselves could set up their own regulations for admission to educational institutions?

Could the nine justices ever justify to themselves why the Supreme Court for 90 years has persistently refused to rule in any case brought before it that the 14th Amendment had been legally adopted in 1868, preferring instead to take refuge in the evasive comment that this was a "political" question?

Could the nine justices — who seem so anxious about public opinion abroad, especially in the Soviet Union — forget that the Soviet tactics in Hungary were duplicated here in 1868 when, after the war between the states was over, military forces from the North were sent into the halls of puppet legislatures in the South and the "ratification" of the 14th Amendment was compelled at the point of the bayonet?

WOULDN'T IT seem logical that, since the present court turned back the decision of 1896 on "separate but equal" facilities, it could go back just a little further to 1868 and reverse what happened when the so-called 14th Amendment was "adopted"?

Wouldn't it be more in keeping with American tradition of freedom to submit such an amendment now to the people of all the states and let them determine whether they want the federal government to be prive the states of the powers they thought they had all along reserved to themselves when they ratified the 10th Amendment?

These points today have been forgotten by many people in the North but they are ingrained in the minds of many people in the South, who were taught from 1868 supreme in education and thus de- to 1954 that the following doctrine —expressed by the Supreme Court of the United States in a 7 to 1 ruling — had been proclaimed as the "law of the land":

"The object of the (14th) amendment was undoubtedly to enforce the absolute equality of the two races before the law but in the nature of things it could not have been intended to abolish distinctions based upon color or to enforce social, as distinguished from political, equality or a commingling of the two races upon terms unsatisfactory to either.

"LAWS PERMITTING and even requiring their separation in places where they are liable to be brought into contact do not necessarily imply the inferiority of either race to the other, and have been generally, if not universally, recognized as within the competency of the state legislatures in the exercise of their police power.

"The most common instance of this is connected with the establishment of separate schools for white and colored children, which have been held to be a valid exercise of the legislative power even by courts of states where the political rights of the colored race have been longest and most earnestly enforced. . . .

"In determining the question of reasonableness, it (the state) is at liberty to act with reference to the established usages, customs and traditions of the people, and within a view to the promotion of their comfort, and the preservation of the public peace and good order. . . .

"We consider the underlying fallacy of the plaintiff's argument to consist in the assumption that the enforced separation of the two races stamps the colored race with a badge of inferiority.

"If this be so, it is not by reason of anything found in the act, but solely because the colored race chooses to put that construction upon it. . . .

"THE ARGUMENT also assumes that social prejudices may be overcome by legislation, and that equal rights cannot be secured to the Negro except by an enforced commingling of the two races. We cannot accept this proposition. If the two races are to meet on terms of social equality, it must be the result of natural affinities, a mutual appreciation of each other's merits and a voluntary consent of individuals. . . .

"Legislation is powerless to eradicate racial instincts or to abolish distinctions based upon physical differences, and the attempt to do so can only result in accentuating the difficulties of the present situation."

But this was suddenly "reversed" in 1954 and "justified," not by legal precedents but by resort to considerations of "psychology."

That's why the nation today faces the test of a basic principle of government — whether social reforms of any kind in the community can ever be achieved by coercion instead of by volition.

The Liberals Can't Lose

By Raymond Moley

It is a matter of interest historically that the long arm of the late Harry Hopkins has now placed before the voters of New York a narrow choice for governor—a choice which may leave many voters inert and absent on election day.

Hopkins, who hated capitalism, loved to enjoy the company and entertainment of sons of departed capitalists.

Some of these companions of his off hours, through the Hopkins influence, went on to glory. Prominent among them were the late Edward R. Stettinius Jr. who ended up as secretary of state and Averell Harriman, who occupied a long list of elevated offices.

There were others, including Nelson Rockefeller, who filled a number of lesser posts beginning in 1940.

There is very little to distinguish the political views of the two candidates, Harriman and Rockefeller. Both are pronounced "liberals" favoring more federal spending at home and abroad, more deference to the great power of labor union leaders, and more federal control of everything.

IN FACT, Harriman was one of the first who suggested that Rockefeller would be a good Republican candidate for governor.

As one liberal remarked, "We can't lose."

Another interesting fact about the candidates is that while Rockefeller, the Republican, was the favored candidate of the present Democratic governor, the Democrats nominated for U.S. senator, Frank S. Hogan, who was former Republican Gov. Dewey's choice to succeed himself as district attorney. The Californians have their curious cross-fling. New Yorkers have cross-fertilization.

It is such amusing quirks in the game of politics that give taxpayers at least a laugh for their money.

Another aspect, not so amusing, was the fact that Republicans—mobilized in a great hurrah promoted by what Thomas E. Dewey called the "station-wagon set," mainly in Westchester County—did another "Wilkie blitz" for Rockefeller.

They trampled under foot the legitimate aspirations of Leonard Hall, who has probably done more for the Republican party in New York and the nation than any political leader of his time.

On the Democratic side, the bosses of the Democratic party crushed the legitimate aspirations of James A. Farley, who certainly in the past did more for the Democratic party in New York and the nation than any other living political leader.

IN THIS RUTHLESS business of politics, the past is past. Alben Barkley's expression for political ingratitude was "What have you done for me—lately?"

The Hogan nominaton was put over by Tammany Leader Carmine G. de Sapio over the opposition of Gov. Harriman and Mayor Wagner of New York, who were anxious to appease the splinter Liberal party.

I am not doing De Sapio an injustice in pointing out that the removal of Hogan from his present post as New York's district attorney will be comforting the useful to Tammany. The office itself is a rich plum with a host of appointees. Also, the presence of an able and incorruptble district attorney is disquieting to any Tammany regime.

In the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, Rep. Kenneth Keatng, the voters have a man not well known downstate but one who is in his career in the House has a fairly consstent record of supporting Eisenhower policies—whenever those policies were clear.

With the shifting of population in the state, the election will be determined by the immense vote of New York City. And that is decidedly a Democratic vote.

Teachers With Fixed Bayonets

Would not there finally come a September school opening n the 1960s when the prospect of sending U.S. troops to Southern schools again would be more than American citizens could stomach?

And would there not come a time, also, when even the prospect of keeping New York City schools open with police patrols would make Americans say, "Something has gone wrong with an educational system that uses soldiers with bayonets and policemen with clubs"?

No city, no school district, no state and no section of the country can afford to feel smug about their relative lack of trouble, either. The things that have happened in places like Little Rock, Ark., and Brooklyn, N.Y., can happen anywhere, any time.

THE EDUCATIONAL system of the United States is at the mercy of all who take it into their heads to oppose it, because the law says it must serve its opponents as well as its friends.

It must make a valiant, if foolish and futile, effort to educate the educable and the ineducable side by side. It must put the race-rioter and the bona fide student in the same classroom. It must keep a wary eye on the teen-age hoodlum with a switch-blade knife hidden in his pocket while it tries to make scholars out of moppets whose ancestors came to America to have a chance to go to school.

In the worst places, where the seamy side of the American dream is the only side anyone ever sees, the educational system of the United States must try to justify its existence under handicaps so unbearably heavy that they would be more fitting for prisons than schools.

They are, in fact, the handicaps of prison management.

They are the sullen, savage, ignorant hostility of destructionists to all constructive effort — and no school teacher or administrator should be asked to bear them.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE in the United States should be determined by desire. No pupil unwilling to live by the rules of the school should be allowed to set foot inside a school building. Education should be made the highest privilege that society bestows on its apprentice citizens — a preparation for their adult lives.

That is what it is to the vast majority of pupils. The trouble is being caused by a small minority. Even in Little Rock, all reports agree that a handful of obstreperous children egged on by adult irreconcilables caused the trouble last year and are waiting to repeat it this year.

For the school-age minority that needs soldiers with bayonets and policemen with clubs to keep it in line, let there be places of detention presided over by wardens and guards. But get the incorrigibles out of the classrooms. Get them out of contact with children who want to learn. Quit letting them give education in the United States a bad name and a handicap no educator should not be made to carry while there is an able-bodied baby-sitter left alive, even if it takes a bayonet or a club to get the job done.

Putting education on a voluntary basis could solve the problem in Little Rock. That's more than the law can do.

There Can Be No Doubt About It

The auto industry's hopes for a good year rest on four factors: Good models, good production, good times and good labor relations.

The same four factors will determine whether United Auto Workers has a good year, too. They also will determine what happens to the individual members of the big union.

There can be no doubt about it that Walter Reuther, the UAW president, has it easily within his power to wreck the livelihood of thousands of union members and the earning prospects of the automobile industry in 1959.

There can be no doubt about it, either, that the wildcat strikes which had idled 18,000 workers last week are an omen that UAW power will be used ruthlessly in the forthcoming effort to force auto industry management into knuckle-down negotiations at the outset of model changeovers.

This is the deferred climax of the stalled negotiations last May, when contracts with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler expired. The companies refused a three-month extension, and the union said it would work without a contract for three months. The time is up. The truce is over.

It can be a good year for auto manufacturers and their employes if they want it to be a good year — both groups. It can be a good year for members of UAW if their negotiators want it to be a good year — meaning the men who do what Reuther wants them to do. It can be a good year for all the towns that make materials for the auto industry. It can be a good year for everybody, if its prospects aren't knocked in the head before the old year has been nailed up on the barn door to dry.

Every so often, some economist sizes up the shape of things as they are and says hopefully that what this country needs is economic statesmanship.

An economic statesmen tries to take the long view. He never cuts off his nose to spite his face. He tries to give things a helpful push in the direction they need to move in to make progress. He does not play dog in the manager. He grants it is better to have $1 that has full buying power than $1 that has less than 50 per cent buying power. He doesn't kid himself that he is lifting himself off the ground when he pulls up on his own suspenders.

That's what the country needs. Fellows like that. Economic statesmen.

Pull The Weeds

A late summer hazard for motorists, pedestrians and cyclists — high weeds obstructing views at intersections — added another victim this week when a 10 - year - old Columbiana area boy was injured by a car.

The State Highway Patrol said the youth was riding a bike through an intersection when he was hit by a car whose driver could not properly see the intersecting road because of tall weeds.

This blinding of ordinarily safe road and street junctions by overgrown grass and weeds is not only a problem in the rural areas, but within some city limits.

Those responsible for street and highway maintenance should make sure intersections are cleared of such growth and motorists should be especially careful when passing through these dangerous junctions. Property owners on whose land such growths are located could take it upon themselves to clear the corners to provide a safe view of the sideroads.

Here is a case where action can solve a traffic problem easier than an attitude. The swing of a sickle is worth more than a thousand traffic slogans.

The Once Over

General Motors, largest U.S. corporation, has turned in its chief for a new model with more youthful lines and push-button vitality. Frederick C. Donner is the new chairman and chief executive.

He is the unemotional type. Able to get half a million a year in salary without showing excitement. He is a genius at figures. Can look at a business statement and at glance tell whether the auto industry needs stronger bumpers or prettier instruments boards. Has rare talent for swift decision whether power brakes and push buttons are required on autos or on company cashbox.

HIS HOBBY is reading Civil War books. Why not? Auto industry is a battle in which you never can be sure when it will be handy to imitate Sheridan's Ride and retreat from Bull Run.

There are times when it is best to sit quietly and await developments like McClellan. And days when it is time to storm the heights For the past year it has been a problem whether to list all-out aggressiveness as an "extra" or as "regular equipment."

Donner commutes daily on the 7:34 from Port Washington, L.I., and returns on the 6:15. This shows his ruggedness and determination. He is always looking ahead and doesn't depend on a windshield wiper.

JOHN F. GORDON, also a new top man, aspired to naval career and graduated from Annapolis. He decided to be a designer for GM. He is noted for ability to determine time for style changes and has yet to make a mistake by going too far for a Cadillac customer.

Donner got $442,500 in salary and bonuses last year. Gordon took down $338,700. When a fellow has been forced to keep wolf from door on that kind of money these days he is entitled to promotion and a raise in pay.

Both boys think the auto is here to stay. And are sure they made no mistake staying with it.

NO MATTER WHO WINS the governorship of New York, his supporters can take comfort from the fact that either might be split 10 to 1.

Edward Bennett Williams, Hoffa counsel, is proposer of probe board named by Hoffa. Eddie is a smart cookie, and it could be that the idea is to get Jimmy off the hook. Jimmy knows he can't easily fire alleged racketeers to whom he owes much. But if his new commission comes out with verdict demanding their ousting, he can clean up and say, "How could I help it?"

History's first round-the-world nonstop flight was made in 1949, when Capt. James Gallagher and his U. S. Air Force crew of 13 men flew around the world nonstop from Fort Worth, Tex., returning to the same point —a distance of 23,452 miles in 94 hours, 1 minute, with four aerial refuelings enroute.

When Else?

After Memorial Day and Independence Day this year, readers wondered whatever happened to the fine old custom of showing the flag on important holidays.

It seems to us that readers have been wondering about this for such a long time we cannot be sure when it really was the fine old custom to display Old Glory.

But on the other hand, there can be no doubt that Old Glory deserves its "day in the sun," when an opportunity arises. No one is suggesting that ordinary householders should display flags day in and day out, but only that householders who possess flags should get them out a few times a year and admire them.

Labor Day is one of the opportunities for making a special effort to display the American flag. It is the last holiday of the summer season, the last holiday that occurs in flag-flying weather.

For a change, it would be nice to have readers wondering after Labor Day this year where all the flags came from that were to be seen for the looking. It might even be the beginning of a "fine old custom."

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

This is the story of how the faith of a merchant went around the world. At 16 he knelt in a drapery shop and gave his heart to God. It was mid-19th Century England, when men worked 17 hours a day and salesmen were unscrupulous. Yet, this former farm boy wrote, "I would be righteous and holy in business, doing it as for Christ." He sought Christian companionship and prayed after work with another employe. They were joined by others. Soon the youngest apprentice and the boss were interested.

The idea spread to other businesses, countries and continents, refreshing spirits, minds and bodies. Simultaneously, the merchant became the best salesman in London, a husband, father, head of his business, a wealthy man and a knight: Sir George Williams, founder of the Y.M.C.A.

'Reuther Definitely Decides To Strike'

By Victor Riesel

Chants of olden picket lines blend with the clatter of these typewriter keys as I pass on reports that Walter Reuther and his Auto Union's high command have definitely decided to strike —either General Motors in September or Ford in early October.

Victor Riesel

In the past 10 days Reuther has confided to his closest aides that he is himself not certain which of the two giant auto makers he believes should first be paralyzed.

The tipoff will be the summoning of the union's high council to Detroit. UAW Executive Board members are virtually sitting by with packed bags. The word now is that the Auto Union will strike a week or teh days after its top officials gather.

Many in the Auto Union leadership believe that if they are called into emergency conference in September, the picket lines will swing around the scores of GM plants. If the Executive Board does not meet until October, then the target will be Ford.

I report this as a war correspondent would report the strategy of a great army—for this will be large scale industrial warfare—not violent but bitter and exhaustive.

THE AUTO UNION'S strategy, as some high council members see it, will be to strike the corporation whose executives seem toughest in the current negotiations.

This will be done in the hope that the friendlier of the two companies might be willing to make a pact and isolate the other manufacturer.

Target date for striking General Motors, according to the union's top strategists, is Sept. 15. On that date the union expects GM to start producing its surprise new Chevrolet—which the union people call GM's "breadwinner."

There's a story behind this sleek new car. No one in the industry had expected GM to have so new a "Chevy" model. The 1958 model was new. It was not expected that GM would change its '59 Chevy so completely.

Naturally the other companies then had to plan some mighty tough competition for the new Chevrolet. Ford, for example, decided to take a few weeks longer and move its projected 1960 model up to 1959. This means some retooling but it means a bright new model too. The new Fords won't be rolling off the lines until early October.

So the union strategists will have to wait until then if they want to hit Ford as the critical moment. But which one do they want to hit, Ford or GM? That's the big question Reuther and the men around him ponder out loud these days.

SOME UNION tacticians argue that striking Ford is best because it is smaller than GM. Thus the 300,000 union members at GM could stay at work and help support the striking 125,000 Ford workers while they are on the bricks.

But, other old school braintrusters retort that nothing is won until you win it at GM. Therefore, they want the bigger corporation hit regardless of the cost—which would run some eight million dollars a week. This would wipe out the UAW strike fund in little more than a month.

This is, of course, still another possible stratagem. The union could strike the feeder parts plants. This would force the big companies to shut down soon enough. And the workers would get unemployment insurance, both public and private.

But whichever the Auto Union decides to hit, Reuther will have some powerful support.

This support has been generally overlooked by warm weather observers. The support is concentrated in a special committee appointed the other week by the AFL-CIO Executive Council to aid the UAW. Its seven members are among the shrewdest tacticians and lead the wealthiest unions in the land.

They are David Dubinsky, George Harrison, James Carey, Al Hayes, Dave McDonald, Joe Keenan and Joe Bierne. They themselves lead a total of 3,500,000 dues payers. These men are powerful national personalities. As a "standby committee" speaking for all labor, they'll make powerful allies for Reuther.

It would be nice if a pact is signed soon after Labor Day and the game called on account of good sense.

Trespassing Allowed

By Truman Twill

The dogs and I often go trespassing in the September twilight. It is no special treat for them, because they do it 365 days a year, but only in the early fall do I have the time to join them.

Last night, we went down the lane to the highway, up the hill on the highway to the top of the ridge and across the ridge to the place where our house and the front yard and the flower garden can be seen to the best advantage.

They are nestled below, in a notch in the long slope to the creek at the bottom. This is a familiar sight for the dogs, who go up on the ridge frequently, but unfortunately no one else ever sees the place from up there, except the people who work the next farm.

It is where Grandma Moses would sit if she were going to do one of her stylized landscapes. But if Grandma went there we'd have to arrange about the fences.

I know exactly how to get over a barbed wire fence without getting caught and without springing the fence. The dogs know exactly how far to scooch down to get under the bottom strand. But barbed wire is not for women with skirts or heavy-footed men.

Electric fences, on the other hand, are not for anybody. I barged into two of them last night in the dark, both times with my hands up so nothing touched the fence but my clothing. The fact is, I never have touched one with my hands. I am afraid of them. That, of course, is the principle of an electric fence. It is not a fence at all but a barrier of fear. Cattle learn to be afraid of the barrier when they touch their moist noses to the thin strand the first time; they never try that again, even if the current is off.

We stopped to marvel at a rock pile representing the land-clearing labor of generations of farmers. Some of the rocks are the size of two bushel baskets and must have taken hours of labor to move them. Rabbits hippity-hopped all over the place, showing their contempt for the dogs, which hunt entirely by scent and hardly would notice a rabbit if it ran between their legs. Benign cows looked at us solemnly out of the gathering mist. A screech owl was sounding his A in the woods. Crickets were warming up for the overture.

The pastures are thick and lush this year—not parched and sparse as they usually are by Labor Day. The new growth in the meadows where so much of the hay was spoiled by rain is coming fine. The moon and the stars are coming fine. The satellites are fine, too, so what? They won't make any difference—up there.

The twilight air is fragrant with the odor of dew, grass and fall wildflowers. The whole thing is June in reverse, with knowledge and maturity added. Everything is done now, the best there is to be. Autumn is the festival of maturity—nature's tribute to the known, instead of man's twittering uncertainty about the unknown. If June is the season of hope, September is the season of fulfilment. Only the justifiable hopes ever are fulfilled.

The dogs, I suspect, understand this better than their master, who never can spare the time to look at reality in twilight, until summer is over.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — From 1,600 to 1,700 pupils prepared to return to Midland public schools and Midland's new parochial school at the beginning of the fall term.

For the second time within a week, the flight of the dirigible Los Angeles from its Lakehurst, N.J., hangar to the Ohio Valley and East Liverpool was canceled because of bad weather.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The annual reunion of the Madison Township School was held at the YMCA camp at Pine Ridge.

A total of 170 WPA employes were at work on four different streets as the second week of the $414,850 blanket street project neared a close.

TEN YEARS AGO — J. Homer Browne of Lisbon was named chairman of Columbiana County's three-man draft board.

Twenty floats were entered in the annual homecoming parade at Salineville.

Integration Thoughts

By David Lawrence

Court Ignores Roots Of 14th Amendment

Thoughts that came to mind as the Supreme Court of the United States was hearing in extraordinary session arguments on whether or not to postpone its decree on "integration" of schools at Little Rock:

David Lawrence

Could the nine justices really be unmindful of the illegal manner by which the 14th amendment itself was inserted in the constitution and nevertheless order now that schools be "integrated" lest they be "violating" that amendment?

Could the nine justices be unaware that men equally conscientious — justices like Oliver Wendell Holmes, Louis Brandeis, Charles Evans Hughes and William Howard Taft, who sat on the high court — had again and again refused to rule that the 14th Amendment covered any federal authority to say who shall or shall not attend public schools and instead ruled that the states themselves could set up their own regulations for admission to educational institutions?

Could the nine justices ever justify to themselves why the Supreme Court for 90 years has persistently refused to rule in any case brought before it that the 14th Amendment had been legally adopted in 1868, preferring instead to take refuge in the evasive comment that this was a "political" question?

Could the nine justices — who seem so anxious about public opinion abroad, especially in the Soviet Union — forget that the Soviet tactics in Hungary were duplicated here in 1868 when, after the war between the states was over, military forces from the North were sent into the halls of puppet legislatures in the South and the "ratification" of the 14th Amendment was compelled at the point of the bayonet?

WOULDN'T IT seem logical that, since the present court turned back the decision of 1896 on "separate but equal" facilities, it could go back just a little further to 1868 and reverse what happened when the so-called 14th Amendment was "adopted"?

Wouldn't it be more in keeping with American tradition of freedom to submit such an amendment now to the people of all the states and let them determine whether they want the federal government to be prive the states of the powers they thought they had all along reserved to themselves when they ratified the 10th Amendment?

These points today have been forgotten by many people in the North but they are ingrained in the minds of many people in the South, who were taught from 1868 supreme in education and thus de- to 1954 that the following doctrine —expressed by the Supreme Court of the United States in a 7 to 1 ruling — had been proclaimed as the "law of the land":

"The object of the (14th) amendment was undoubtedly to enforce the absolute equality of the two races before the law but in the nature of things it could not have been intended to abolish distinctions based upon color or to enforce social, as distinguished from political, equality or a commingling of the two races upon terms unsatisfactory to either.

"LAWS PERMITTING and even requiring their separation in places where they are liable to be brought into contact do not necessarily imply the inferiority of either race to the other, and have been generally, if not universally, recognized as within the competency of the state legislatures in the exercise of their police power.

"The most common instance of this is connected with the establishment of separate schools for white and colored children, which have been held to be a valid exercise of the legislative power even by courts of states where the political rights of the colored race have been longest and most earnestly enforced. . . .

"In determining the question of reasonableness, it (the state) is at liberty to act with reference to the established usages, customs and traditions of the people, and within a view to the promotion of their comfort, and the preservation of the public peace and good order. . . .

"We consider the underlying fallacy of the plaintiff's argument to consist in the assumption that the enforced separation of the two races stamps the colored race with a badge of inferiority.

"If this be so, it is not by reason of anything found in the act, but solely because the colored race chooses to put that construction upon it. . . .

"THE ARGUMENT also assumes that social prejudices may be overcome by legislation, and that equal rights cannot be secured to the Negro except by an enforced commingling of the two races. We cannot accept this proposition. If the two races are to meet on terms of social equality, it must be the result of natural affinities, a mutual appreciation of each other's merits and a voluntary consent of individuals. . . .

"Legislation is powerless to eradicate racial instincts or to abolish distinctions based upon physical differences, and the attempt to do so can only result in accentuating the difficulties of the present situation."

But this was suddenly "reversed" in 1954 and "justified," not by legal precedents but by resort to considerations of "psychology."

That's why the nation today faces the test of a basic principle of government — whether social reforms of any kind in the community can ever be achieved by coercion instead of by volition.

The Liberals Can't Lose

By Raymond Moley

It is a matter of interest historically that the long arm of the late Harry Hopkins has now placed before the voters of New York a narrow choice for governor—a choice which may leave many voters inert and absent on election day.

Hopkins, who hated capitalism, loved to enjoy the company and entertainment of sons of departed capitalists.

Some of these companions of his off hours, through the Hopkins influence, went on to glory. Prominent among them were the late Edward R. Stettinius Jr. who ended up as secretary of state and Averell Harriman, who occupied a long list of elevated offices.

There were others, including Nelson Rockefeller, who filled a number of lesser posts beginning in 1940.

There is very little to distinguish the political views of the two candidates, Harriman and Rockefeller. Both are pronounced "liberals" favoring more federal spending at home and abroad, more deference to the great power of labor union leaders, and more federal control of everything.

IN FACT, Harriman was one of the first who suggested that Rockefeller would be a good Republican candidate for governor.

As one liberal remarked, "We can't lose."

Another interesting fact about the candidates is that while Rockefeller, the Republican, was the favored candidate of the present Democratic governor, the Democrats nominated for U.S. senator, Frank S. Hogan, who was former Republican Gov. Dewey's choice to succeed himself as district attorney. The Californians have their curious cross-fling. New Yorkers have cross-fertilization.

It is such amusing quirks in the game of politics that give taxpayers at least a laugh for their money.

Another aspect, not so amusing, was the fact that Republicans—mobilized in a great hurrah promoted by what Thomas E. Dewey called the "station-wagon set," mainly in Westchester County—did another "Wilkie blitz" for Rockefeller.

They trampled under foot the legitimate aspirations of Leonard Hall, who has probably done more for the Republican party in New York and the nation than any political leader of his time.

On the Democratic side, the bosses of the Democratic party crushed the legitimate aspirations of James A. Farley, who certainly in the past did more for the Democratic party in New York and the nation than any other living political leader.

IN THIS RUTHLESS business of politics, the past is past. Alben Barkley's expression for political ingratitude was "What have you done for me—lately?"

The Hogan nominaton was put over by Tammany Leader Carmine G. de Sapio over the opposition of Gov. Harriman and Mayor Wagner of New York, who were anxious to appease the splinter Liberal party.

I am not doing De Sapio an injustice in pointing out that the removal of Hogan from his present post as New York's district attorney will be comforting the useful to Tammany. The office itself is a rich plum with a host of appointees. Also, the presence of an able and incorruptble district attorney is disquieting to any Tammany regime.

In the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, Rep. Kenneth Keating, the voters have a man not well known downstate but one who is in his career in the House has a fairly consstent record of supporting Eisenhower policies—whenever those policies were clear.

With the shifting of population in the state, the election will be determined by the immense vote of New York City. And that is decidedly a Democratic vote.

Mrs. Richard E. Moninger received the club championship trophy for women golfers at the closing dinner of the season Wednesday night at the Country Club. Some 60 attended the 6:30 o'clock affair.

She will hold the cup for a year. In addition to a gift from the group, she also received a silver bowl for permanent possession in recognition of the championship.

The runnerup award of a silver bowl went to Miss Barbara Hartt and the consolation award to Mrs. George Steele.

Mrs. R. J. Kinsey was winner for Division 2 — and received a small trophy she will keep for a year and another trophy and gift for permanent possession.

Others receiving awards were Mrs. Don Schreckengost, runnerup for Division 2 and Mrs. W. A. Porter for consolation.

Those qualifying for the championship, Mrs. Moninger and Miss Hartt, who tied for Division 1, and Mrs. Kinsey for Division 2, also received recognition.

Mrs. William E. Dunlap, retiring golf chairman, announced the awards and Mrs. Edgar Westfall and Mrs. William Laughlin made the presentations.

Bridge and putting followed and 11 tables of cards were in play. Winners included Mrs. A. J. Clorran, Mrs. Lawrence Sixt, Mrs. Alwyn Purinton Jr., Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. Sidney Porter, Mrs. Norman Ankrim, Mrs. William F. Porter, Mrs. Bayard Hunsicker and Mrs. Dunlap, with Mrs. William A. Harris receiving the special award.

New officers elected for the 1959 golf season were Mrs. William Pickin, chairman, and Mrs. Moninger, co-chairmen, and for bridge, Mrs. Dean M. Wilhelm and Mrs. John C. Fitch.

Mrs. William Kelly won the low gross score for women's golf events in the forenoon and afternoon with Mrs. Robert Patterson winning low net. Mrs. Gordon Weese and Mrs. Pickin tied for putting. All were in Division 1.

Low gross for Division 2 went to Mrs. R. V. Beatty and low net to Mrs. Kinsey and putting honors were shared by Mrs. A. W. Porter, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Richard Crable.

Mrs. Kelly also won the ringer score for Division 1 and Miss Pam Porter for Division 2.

The duplicate bridge season for women of the club will begin Sept. 10 with a 12 o'clock luncheon.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

A review of the book, "Meet Dr. Luke," highlighted devotions Thursday for the Mary Anna Circle of the Women's Association of the Longs Run Presbyterian Church. Seven attended the 12:30 o'clock picnic in Thompson Park.

Mrs. Lee Myers, president, offered the blessing and conducted business. Guests includes Linda May Fisher, T. H. Fisher and Danny Myers.

A report was made by Mrs. Ruth Palmer, card chairman.

An evening meeting will be held at 8 o'clock Sept. 25 with Mrs. JoAnn Fisher of the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

The commission of Mrs. Mary Gilmore as new council deputy was read at the meeting of Purity Council 7, Daughters of America, Tuesday night in the Sons of Veterans Hall.

Business was conducted by Mrs. Mildred Pepin, councilor, and a report of the state sessions last week in Columbus was made by Mrs. Rhea Silverthorn, representative. Others attending for the local group were Mrs. Gladys Bishop and Mrs. Grace Hall, who participated in the District 6 drill for the home and orphans committee.

Mrs. Hallie Welch read Mrs. Gilmore's commission. Mrs. Bishop was elected treasurer to fill an unexpired term.

She and Mrs. Hall, financial secretary, were installed. Mrs. Hall was absent for the recent installation.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gilmore.

The 47th anniversary of the council will be celebrated with a party Sept. 12 and Mrs. Gilmore and Mrs. Silverthorn will be hostesses.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Lindalee Cunningham was feted with a farewell surprise party Thursday night. Her sister, Mary Helen Cunningham, and Donna Lee Barrett entertained for the event at the home of the honor guest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cunningham, of Vodrey Ln., Calcutta.

A 1958 graduate of East Liverpool High School and a member of the Future Nurses of America Chapter, Miss Cunningham will enter nurse's training Wednesday at the Cuyahoga County Hospital in Cleveland.

Some 30 attended.

She was presented gifts, including an autograph album from her parents, which was signed by those attending.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Martha Chandler, aunt of the honor guest, and Mrs. Geraldine Barrett.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Mrs. Willa Blackburn, Mrs. Emma Sutton and Mrs. Anna Hoobler won prizes at 500 Thursday night for the WNTH Club. Two tables were in play at the home of Mrs. Helen Wagoner, 1003 Railroad St.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ella Willard.

The next meeting is Sept. 10 at Meade's Restaurant, Wellsville, with Mrs. Hoobler hostess.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Seventeen attended a 6 o'clock coverdish dinner Wednesday night for Pa Mir Zuanna 43, Ladies of the Orient, at the home of Mrs. Grace Mossman of Garner Ave.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bessie White, Mrs. Emma Thompson and Mrs. Gladys Bourne. Floral arrangements highlighted table decorations. The blessing was offered by Mrs. Thompson.

Winners for games included Mrs. Laura Costello, Mrs. Matilda Chapman, Mrs. Edna Jones, Mrs. Beulah Hill, Mrs. Miriam Abrams, Mrs. Celia Kinsey and Miss Mae McAllister.

Prizes for canasta went to Mrs. Mary Thelma Putt, Mrs. Bourne, Mrs. Mary Jane Jennings and Mrs. Mossman.

Regular meetings will resume Sept. 25 in the Odd Fellows Temple.

Film Lovelies Look To Empire

Sacking Of Sack, Demise Of Chemise Pleases Stars

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The sacking of the sack and the demise of the chemise are good news in the film capital.

Movie lovelies sighed with relief when they heard that the sack look is being outmoded this fall by Paris' new empire look.

Hollywood husbands also applauded the changes except for some moaning about conversion expense.

In case you haven't heard, the empire line offers this change: Waistline up, neckline down. Skirts cut off at the knee. Except for Dior's; his skirts go to mid-calf.

Mitzi Gaynor, who claims she never succumbed to the sack, was probably the biggest booster for empire. Said Mitzi:

"I fell in love with it when I was in Europe, and I have been wearing it several months now. The new neckline and short skirt reveal, well, whatever there is to reveal; yet the undefined waistline provides just the right element of mystery to hold interest."

Ann Sothern, long-time advocate of snappy fashions, commented:

"I'll be happy to see the change. But I haven't decided yet whether it's because I actually like the empire look or because I loathed the sack look."

A Latin observation from Katy Jurado: "It will make American women look better, but will it make American men better lovers?"

Vera Miles wasn't too sure. "A new fashion," she said, "always brings forth from me a solemn vow that I'll never be caught wearing it. A month later I'm on the bandwagon. Today I'm certain I'll never be seen in a dress with the current unflattering high waist line. Next month I may happily be wearing one."

Jan Clayton, contending American women can't be stampeded, volunteered: "The new empire line is fine — it gives us one more silhouette."

John Watson and John Weber were in charge of a peanut scramble and Mrs. Eleanor Sheppard and daughter, Donna, were in charge of the prizes.

Carl Stockdale, superintendent of the Church School, presided at the vesper services. The Rev. Carl Beighley, newly appointed pastor of the church, gave a brief talk concerning his call to the ministry.

Songs and prayer closed the event.

'58 Ohio Fair Now History; Report Waited

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 1958 Ohio State Fair is history today but whether the 104th annual exposition was a financial success is yet to be determined.

The fair itself drew praises from all officials and paid attendance, especially at the grandstand shows, was far below pre-fair expectations.

Fair Manager D. Robert Jones said he may present to the State Board of Agriculture a plan calling for a doubling of the 75-cent gate admission. The increased prices, however, would entitle the purchaser entrance to all fair activities including grandstand and coliseum shows.

Agriculture Director James R. Hay said that under the $1.50 admission plan gate receipts for 300,000 admissions would be $450,000. This would enable the presentation of $100,000 worth of entertainment talent — approximate cost of this year's shows — and still leave a sizeable reserve for other expenses.

Adding to the financial problems of the fair officials was an Internal Revenue Service claim that the fair owes $10,000 for this year's horse show and the grandstand and coliseum shows, and another $40,000 for previous fairs, despite the fact they were granted exemptions at the time.

Attorneys for the State Board of Agriculture said they will file an appeal.

The only man in U. S. history elected President while serving in the Senate was an Ohioan, Warren G. Harding of Corsica.

Mrs. Richard E. Moninger received the club championship trophy for women golfers at the closing dinner of the season Wednesday night at the Country Club. Some 60 attended the 6:30 o'clock affair.

She will hold the cup for a year. In addition to a gift from the group, she also received a silver bowl for permanent possession in recognition of the championship.

The runnerup award of a silver bowl went to Miss Barbara Hartt and the consolation award to Mrs. George Steele.

Mrs. R. J. Kinsey was winner for Division 2 — and received a small trophy she will keep for a year and another trophy and gift for permanent possession.

Others receiving awards were Mrs. Don Schreckengost, runnerup for Division 2 and Mrs. W. A. Porter for consolation.

Those qualifying for the championship, Mrs. Moninger and Miss Hartt, who tied for Division 1, and Mrs. Kinsey for Division 2, also received recognition.

Mrs. William E. Dunlap, retiring golf chairman, announced the awards and Mrs. Edgar Westfall and Mrs. William Laughlin made the presentations.

Bridge and putting followed and 11 tables of cards were in play. Winners included Mrs. A. J. Cloran, Mrs. Lawrence Sixt, Mrs. Alwyn Purinton Jr., Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. Sidney Porter, Mrs. Norman Ankrim, Mrs. William F. Porter, Mrs. Bayard Hunsicker and Mrs. Dunlap, with Mrs. William A. Harris receiving the special award.

New officers elected for the 1959 golf season were Mrs. William Pickin, chairman, and Mrs. Moninger, co - chairmen, and for bridge, Mrs. Dean M. Wilhelm and Mrs. John C. Fitch.

Mrs. William Kelly won the low gross score for women's golf events in the forenoon and afternoon with Mrs. Robert Patterson winning low net. Mrs. Gordon Weese and Mrs. Pickin tied for putting. All were in Division 1.

Low gross for Division 2 went to Mrs. R. V. Beatty and low net to Mrs. Kinsey and putting honors were shared by Mrs. A. W. Porter, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Richard Crable.

Mrs. Kelly also won the ringer score for Division 1 and Miss Pam Porter for Division 2.

The duplicate bridge season for women of the club will begin Sept. 10 with a 12 o'clock luncheon.

Vera Miles wasn't too sure. "A new fashion," she said, "always brings forth from me a solemn vow that I'll never be caught wearing it. A month later I'm on the bandwagon. Today I'm certain I'll never be seen in a dress with the current unflattering high waist line. Next month I may happily be wearing one."

Jan Clayton, contending American women can't be stampeded, volunteered: "The new empire line is fine — it gives us one more silhouette."

Songs and prayer closed the event.

'58 Ohio Fair Now History; Report Waited

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 1958 Ohio State Fair is history today but whether the 104th annual exposition was a financial success is yet to be determined.

The fair itself drew praises from all officials and paid attendance, especially at the grandstand shows, was far below pre-fair expectations.

Fair Manager D. Robert Jones said he may present to the State Board of Agriculture a plan calling for a doubling of the 75-cent gate admission. The increased prices, however, would entitle the purchaser entrance to all fair activities including grandstand and coliseum shows.

Agriculture Director James R. Hay said that under the $1.50 admission plan gate receipts for 300,000 admissions would be $450,000. This would enable the presentation of $100,000 worth of entertainment talent — approximate cost of this year's shows — and still leave a sizeable reserve for other expenses.

Adding to the financial problems of the fair officials was an Internal Revenue Service claim that the fair owes $10,000 for this year's horse show and the grandstand and coliseum shows, and another $40,000 for previous fairs, despite the fact they were granted exemptions at the time.

Attorneys for the State Board of Agriculture said they will file an appeal.

The only man in U. S. history elected President while serving in the Senate was an Ohioan, Warren G. Harding of Corsica.

Confident Living

By Norman Vincent Peale

How To Make Successful Decisions

Have you ever considered the number of decisions you have to make each day, both large and small alike? They may be trivial choices, such as what necktie or dress to wear—or they may be decisions that will affect your whole life, such as whom to marry, what job to take or which way to turn. Every day we must make decisions. And, if we are going to get along well in life, the majority of these must be successful ones.

Dr. Peale

Sometimes we try to delay or avoid decisions. But this is never the final answer because, ultimately, we must decide and we must decide right. And it is very important to know how to make correct choices.

—:—

AN EXTREMELY important factor in reaching successful decisions is to have faith in your own mind and in its power to deliver right answers to life's problems. I believe that every normal person is equipped to make the correct decision in any situation with which he is likely to be faced.

Unfortunately, too many of us never really utilize this power of decision making, never realize its potential. We permit our minds, from whence this power must come, to become unpracticed. We do nothing to sharpen our decisive faculties and so indecision results in worries and conflicts which drain off energies.

Actually it is good practice to toughen our mental abilities by reading and thinking about big problems, not only our own, but the problems of the world.

Perhaps you are not a serious reader. You read the newspapers, but do you do much more than scan the headlines, the columns and comic strips? How long is it since you read and applied hard thinking to the editorial page or profounder articles on international affairs? It is important to take physical exercise, but it is equally vital to exercise the mind's power to think.

Expose yourself to some serious reading matter on international affairs, politics, and philosophy. Read a mentally tough book. How long has it been since you wrestled with a tough book? And I mean a really tough one — so hard to understand that maybe even the author was straining his own understanding when he wrote it. A dull knife won't cut. Neither will a dull mind cut through knotty problems of life to reach answers that really answer.

THE BEST book I know for sharpening your mind so that you can develop the mental power to make successful decisions is the Bible.

From the Bible you get insight along with mental exercise. If you will make a practice of reading at least a chapter a day and really think about its meaning and let it soak into your mind you'll never have any trouble with making successful decisions

A friend of mine works at one of the big international banks in New York City and his advice is constantly sought in arriving at complex decisions in high finance. Yet, although he is keen and sharp, with a truly penetrating understanding, he is a modest, self-effacing, humble man.

I once asked him how he kept his mind so keen. He told me that he arises each morning before seven. He reads the Bible until seven-thirty and meditates deeply on what he reads.

He is an accomplished linguist and, so, one day he reads the Bible in English, the next day in French, and the next in German. He says he understands the different shades of meaning better this way. After this mental and spiritual exercise, he is ready for his office and day's decisions.

He likes best to read St Paul because he thinks St. Paul is "one of the toughest minds that ever lived." He once said to me: "Do you remember, back on the farm, when you wanted to wheat a knife? You laid it on a turning grindstone? Well, that is what I do with my mind. I whet it on the great mind of St. Paul. I keep it sharp on one of the keenest minds that ever lived."

Keep your mind sharp — your insights keen and discerning. By such method you will be successful with life's decisions.

"CLOTHING THE NAKED"

"I was naked and ye clothed me." St. Matthew 25:36

Whatever the cause of misfortune that comes to people, the pinch of poverty is often so great that they must turn to others to help them in their distress.

The Salvation Army in East Liverpool has established a Social Service Center where needy families may secure clothing and furniture. In addition, a Thrift Store has been instituted whereby families in the low-income brackets may secure needed items at a nominal fee, thus enabling to maintain their self-respect.

Though the income from this source is inadequate to cover the overhead of pick-up service, rental and personnel, we are desirous of developing this greatly needed service. The problem confronting us in this project is the need of storage space where separation of items and repair equipment would greatly facilitate the handling of these commodities through the store room.

If any of our friends have knowledge of an adequate storage room at a reasonable figure, your cooperation in notifying us will be greatly appreciated.

May God help us to clothe the naked!

Confident Living

By Norman Vincent Peale

How To Make Successful Decisions

Have you ever considered the number of decisions you have to make each day, both large and small alike? They may be trivial choices, such as what necktie or dress to wear—or they may be decisions that will affect your whole life, such as whom to marry, what job to take or which way to turn. Every day we must make decisions. And, if we are going to get along well in life, the majority of these must be successful ones.

Dr. Peale

Sometimes we try to delay or avoid decisions. But this is never the final answer because, ultimately, we must decide and we must decide right. And it is very important to know how to make correct choices.

—:—

AN EXTREMELY important factor in reaching successful decisions is to have faith in your own mind and in its power to deliver right answers to life's problems. I believe that every normal person is equipped to make the correct decision in any situation with which he is likely to be faced.

Unfortunately, too many of us never really utilize this power of decision making, never realize its potential. We permit our minds, from whence this power must come, to become unpracticed. We do nothing to sharpen our decisive faculties and so indecision results in worries and conflicts which drain off energies.

Actually it is good practice to toughen our mental abilities by reading and thinking about big problems, not only our own, but the problems of the world.

Perhaps you are not a serious reader. You read the newspapers, but do you do much more than scan the headlines, the columns and comic strips? How long is it since you read and applied hard thinking to the editorial page or profounder articles on international affairs? It is important to take physical exercise, but it is equally vital to exercise the mind's power to think.

Expose yourself to some serious reading matter on international affairs, politics, and philosophy. Read a mentally tough book. How long has it been since you wrestled with a tough book? And I mean a really tough one — so hard to understand that maybe even the author was straining his own understanding when he wrote it. A dull knife won't cut. Neither will a dull mind cut through knotty problems of life to reach answers that really answer.

THE BEST book I know for sharpening your mind so that you can develop the mental power to make successful decisions is the Bible.

From the Bible you get insight along with mental exercise. If you will make a practice of reading at least a chapter a day and really think about its meaning and let it soak into your mind you'll never have any trouble with making successful decisions

A friend of mine works at one of the big international banks in New York City and his advice is constantly sought in arriving at complex decisions in high finance. Yet, although he is keen and sharp, with a truly penetrating understanding, he is a modest, self-effacing, humble man.

I once asked him how he kept his mind so keen. He told me that he arises each morning before seven. He reads the Bible until seven-thirty and meditates deeply on what he reads.

He is an accomplished linguist and, so, one day he reads the Bible in English, the next day in French, and the next in German. He says he understands the different shades of meaning better this way. After this mental and spiritual exercise, he is ready for his office and day's decisions.

He likes best to read St Paul because he thinks St. Paul is "one of the toughest minds that ever lived." He once said to me: "Do you remember, back on the farm, when you wanted to wheat a knife? You laid it on a turning grindstone? Well, that is what I do with my mind. I whet it on the great mind of St. Paul. I keep it sharp on one of the keenest minds that ever lived."

Keep your mind sharp — your insights keen and discerning. By such method you will be successful with life's decisions.

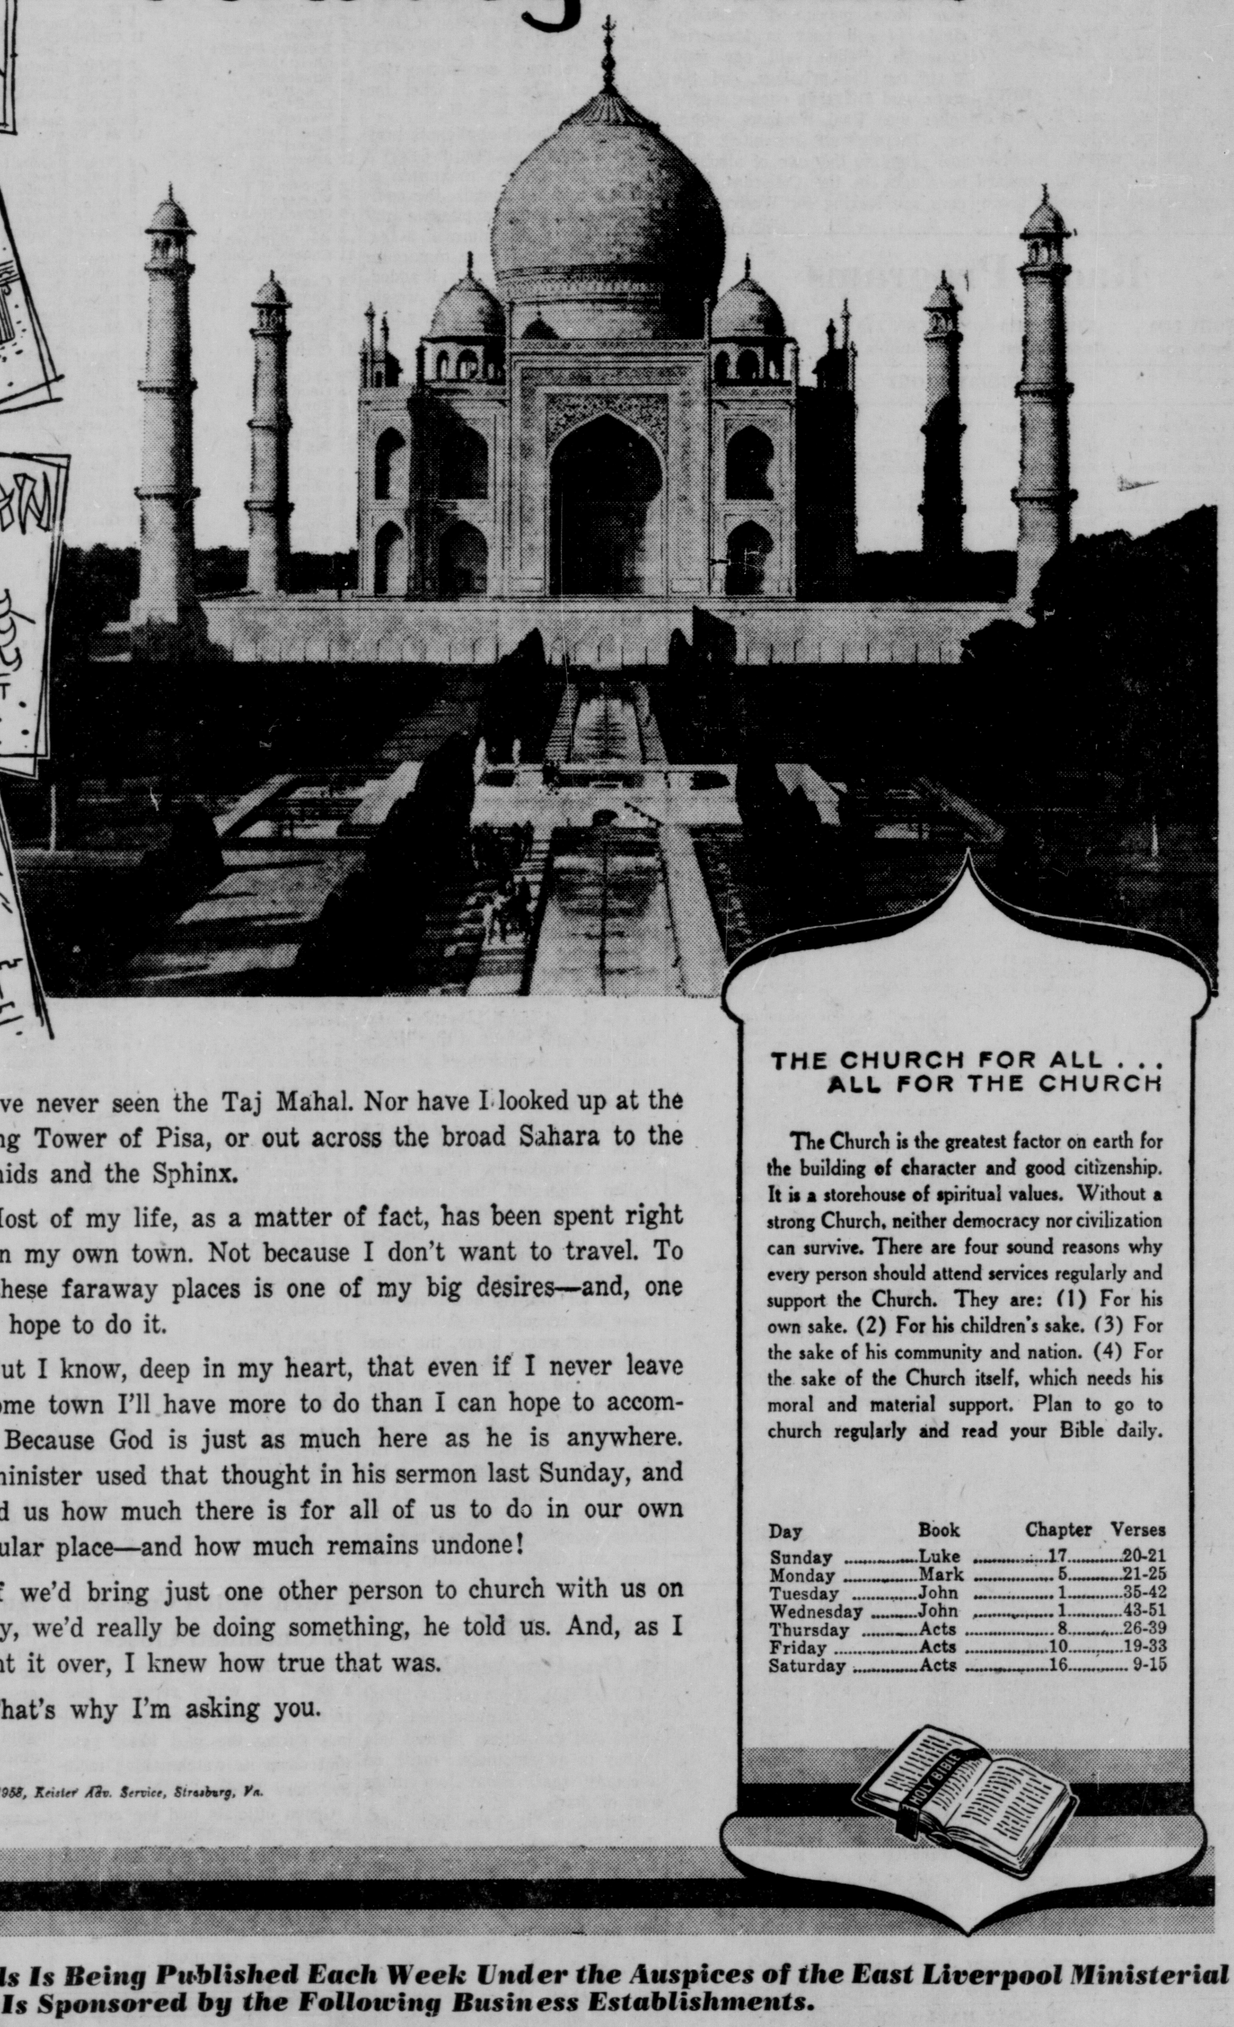
Faraway Places...



I've never seen the Taj Mahal. Nor have I looked up at the Leaning Tower of Pisa, or out across the broad Sahara to the Pyramids and the Sphinx.

Most of my life, as a matter of fact, has been spent right here in my own town. Not because I don't want to travel. To visit these faraway places is one of my big desires—and, one day, I hope to do it.

But I know, deep in my heart, that even if I never leave my home town I'll have more to do than I can hope to accomplish. Because God is just as much here as he is anywhere. Our minister used that thought in his sermon last Sunday, and he told us how much there is for all of us to do in our own particular place—and how much remains undone!

If we'd bring just one other person to church with us on Sunday, we'd really be doing something, he told us. And, as I thought it over, I knew how true that was.

That's why I'm asking you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

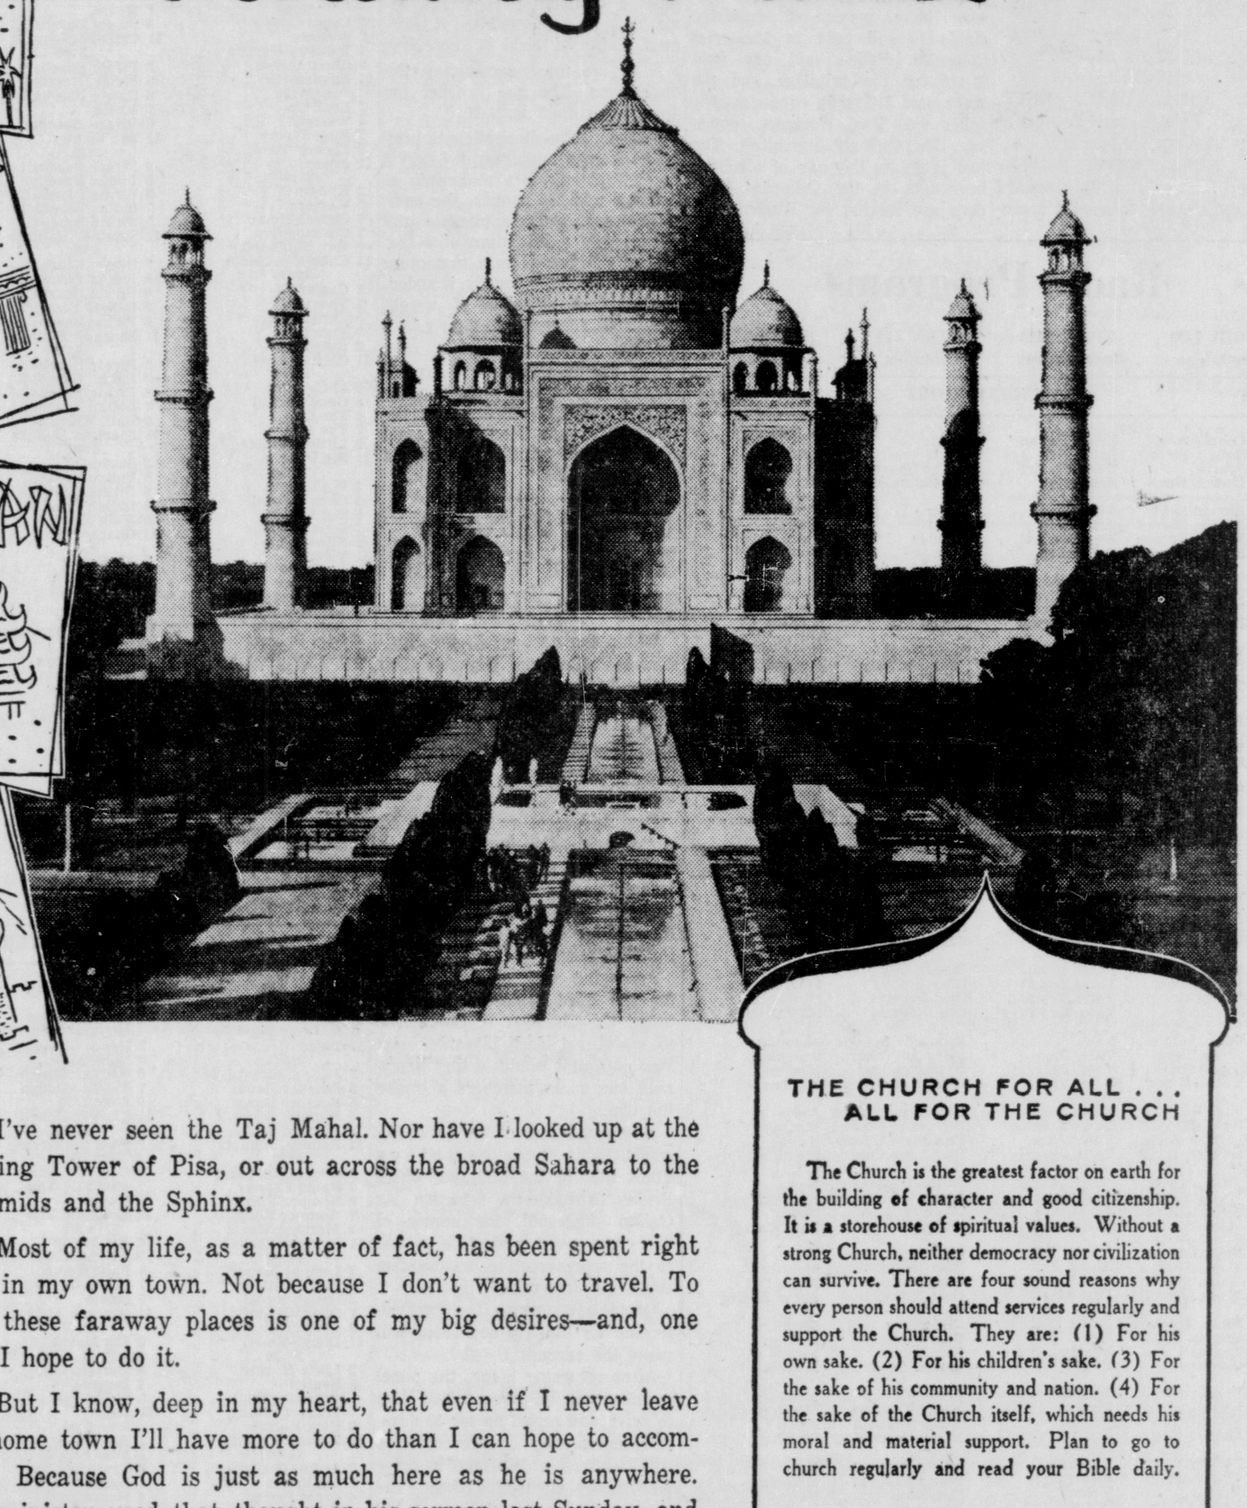
Faraway Places...



I've never seen the Taj Mahal. Nor have I looked up at the Leaning Tower of Pisa, or out across the broad Sahara to the Pyramids and the Sphinx.

Most of my life, as a matter of fact, has been spent right here in my own town. Not because I don't want to travel. To visit these faraway places is one of my big desires—and, one day, I hope to do it.

But I know, deep in my heart, that even if I never leave my home town I'll have more to do than I can hope to accomplish. Because God is just as much here as he is anywhere. Our minister used that thought in his sermon last Sunday, and he told us how much there is for all of us to do in our own particular place—and how much remains undone!

If we'd bring just one other person to church with us on Sunday, we'd really be doing something, he told us. And, as I thought it over, I knew how true that was.

That's why I'm asking you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

2 Persons In One

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two persons have purchased exclusive rights to sell beer in Memorial Coliseum. Police said one paid $1,116 for the privilege and the other paid $1,222. In each cas ethe seller was Paul Wustrack, police say. There's only one hitch: The law prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages in the Coliseum. Officers are looking for Wustrack.

Tests Planned For City Posts

Fire, Police Exams Slated In October

The Municipal Civil Service Commission will conduct competitive examinations in October to make up new eligibility lists for appointments to the police and fire departments.

One fireman's post will be filled immediately as a result of the exam, but the police department has no vacancies at present. The test for prospective firemen will be held Monday, Oct. 13. The exam for would-be police is scheduled the following Monday, Oct. 20. Both will be held in the Council Chamber at City Hall.

The deadline for applications for both tests is set Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 6 p. m. Applications are available at the mayor's office, at the commission's office in City Hall or from any member of the commission — Donal I. Burcham, Alvin T. Babb and Atty. Ben H. Berman. Collin L. Neal is secretary.

A $1 fee must accompany the application. The age bracket for each department is 21-31.

Fire department applicants may range from a minimum of 5 feet 8 and 145 pounds to a maximum of 6 feet 3 and 235 pounds, the commission said. Police applicants may range from a minimum of 5 feet 10 and 160 pounds to a maximum of 6 feet 5 and 240 pounds, it added. It issued a schedule of weight standards according to varying heights.

The commission said it expects large fields of applicants because of slack district employment. Beginners in each department start at $320 monthly and advance in six months to $338.

Club Will Name Member To Visit 1959 Car Preview

Within the next week, the Business & Professional Women's Club will select one of its members for a two - day all - expense trip to Detroit to participate in a national opinion panel on 1959 autos that the public will not see until later in the fall.

East Liverpool was selected as a "representative American community," one of those to send representatives to the conference, by Dr. George Gallup of Princeton, N. J., best known for his Gallup Poll operation.

Arranging the opinion survey for the Ford Motor Co., Gallup asked the Chamber of Commerce to select an East Liverpool service club that would in turn designate one of its members to make the trip.

Representatives of the BPW, Kiwanis, Lions, Quota and Rotary Clubs met in the Chamber office Friday to make the selection. As Gallup suggested, the names of the clubs were placed in a hat so the representative organization could be determined by lot.

Quota will furnish the first alternate for the trip and Lions will name the second.

After returning home, the panel member will be given a 1959 auto to drive and report on for 30 days. The community representatives will be given a 1959 auto to drive and report on for 30 days. The community representatives will have a full opportunity to give "frank and confidential opinions about today's autos and register likes and dislikes," Gallup promised.

1 Killed, 2 Injured In One-Car Accident

CALDWELL, Ohio (AP)— Paul Everly, 22, of Summerfield was killed and two others injured late Friday in an automobile crash on a county road about two miles east of here.

Injured in the accident were Ralph Robinson, 32, and Glen Hill, 21, both of Carlisle. Both men were taken to St. Frances Hospital in Cambridge where Robinson was reported in serious condition.

Sheriff's deputies said Everly, the driver of the car, apparently lost control. The auto went off the road, plunged down a hill and hit a tree.

3 Killed, 1 Injured In Headon Collision

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Three persons were killed in a headon auto collision on Ohio 4 about two miles south of Dayton early this morning, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported.

The victims were identified as Frank Mitchell, 40, of Dayton, driver of one of the cars, and Edwin Smith Jr., 27, of Dayton, driver of the second vehicle. An unidentified Negro passenger in Mitchell's car also was killed.

Joe Lewis Peavy, 22, of Dayton, a passenger in Smith's car is in critical condition in St. Elizabeth's Hospital here, the patrol said.

'Political Upset'

FALL RIVER, Mass. (AP) — Campaign workers were stringing a political banner across Broadway. One of the dangling ropes caught on the bumper of a passing car. The car pulled the third floor porch off a house to which the sign was attached. The porch fell on a parked car, causing considerable damage.

Gruen Watch Concern In Cincinnati Closes

CINCINNATI (AP) — Gruen Watch Co., which reported losses of more than three million dollars during the past fiscal year, shut down its watchmaking facilities here Friday.

Gruen officials told the employees of its assembly plant that there is no more work and workers in its Norwood case plant were told the facility is closing. About 110 workers are affected.

Company officials could not be reached for comment.

Samples Wrong Stuff

DENVER (AP) — Scott Calahan's parents stopped in at a used car lot here to look over some cars. Scott, 3 years old, looked for something more interesting. He found it in a gasoline can and sampled the contents. Scott is in Denver General Hospital, doing well.

J-L To Spend $35 Millions

Units At Pittsburgh, Aliquippa To Benefit

PITTSBURGH — The Jones & Laughlin Corp. will spend $35 million on mill improvements at its Pittsburgh and Aliquippa works, increasing the planned projects for the two - year period of 1958 and 1959 to $93 million.

The improved business picture was cited by J. & L. officials as the reason for the expenditure at this time.

Avery C. Adams, president, told stockholders in an August communication that expenditures for the year 1958 are estimated at $49,000,000 of which $19,600,0 will be spent in the second half year.

He also said operations and shipments in the current quarter should be higher than the previous quarter.

The new byproduct coke ovens at Pittsburgh represent a battery replacement at that plant.

The company has had four small sintering machines at Aliquippa but a much more elaborate sintering operation is contemplated in line with cost - reduction practices that are growing in the steel industry.

Sintering is a process under which fine ore is converted into chunks of metal and these, charged into blast furnaces, improve the yield in the production of pig iron.

The Aliquippa sintering plant will have a capacity of 6,000 tons per day, to replace the present output of 1,800 tons daily.

Not Hard To Spot

GRASMERE, N.H. (AP) — Edward E. Spenard, 24, of Manchester, escaped from the House of Correction where he was serving a year for auto larceny. Police said he shouldn't be hard to spot, though. He went home to change into a green and white plaid sports shirt, blue slacks and a tan and yellow jacket.

Teamsters Unit To Launch Probe Of Its Own Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Teamsters Union commission will begin next Thursday its investigation of racketeering in the big transportation union.

After its first meeting Friday, the three-man commission said it will eliminate "corrupting influences in the union wherever we may find them."

George H. Bender, former Republican senator from Ohio, heads the commission, named last Saturday by Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, himself a target of charges by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee. Other members are F. Joseph Donohue, Washington attorney, and retired Judge Ira W. Jayne of Detroit.

Commission members said they will investigate and advise on the question of infiltration of racketeers and gangsters into local and international union offices and on any alliances with racketeers or gangsters.

Meanwhile, the rackets committee's new series of hearings into Teamsters activities was in recess until Tuesday. Harold J. Gibbons, St. Louis Teamsters boss, will be questioned then.

Salvage Diver Has 'Saddest 45 Minutes'

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — The "saddest 45 minutes of my life," mourned Al Mikalow, who smashed with a sledge more than 50 cases of assorted liquors.

Mikalow, a salvage diver, recovered more than 600 bottles from the hulk of the Showboat. The State Alcoholic Beverage Control Department said estuary waters have contaminated the liquor and ordered it destroyed.

2 Persons In One

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two persons have purchased exclusive rights to sell beer in Memorial Coliseum. Police said one paid $1,116 for the privilege and the other paid $1,222. In each cas ethe seller was Paul Wustrack, police say. There's only one hitch: The law prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages in the Coliseum. Officers are looking for Wustrack.

Tests Planned For City Posts

Fire, Police Exams Slated In October

The Municipal Civil Service Commission will conduct competitive examinations in October to make up new eligibility lists for appointments to the police and fire departments.

One fireman's post will be filled immediately as a result of the exam, but the police department has no vacancies at present. The test for prospective firemen will be held Monday, Oct. 13. The exam for would-be police is scheduled the following Monday, Oct. 20. Both will be held in the Council Chamber at City Hall.

The deadline for applications for both tests is set Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 6 p. m. Applications are available at the mayor's office, at the commission's office in City Hall or from any member of the commission — Donal I. Burcham, Alvin T. Babb and Atty. Ben H. Berman. Collin L. Neal is secretary.

A $1 fee must accompany the application. The age bracket for each department is 21-31.

Fire department applicants may range from a minimum of 5 feet 8 and 145 pounds to a maximum of 6 feet 3 and 235 pounds, the commission said. Police applicants may range from a minimum of 5 feet 10 and 160 pounds to a maximum of 6 feet 5 and 240 pounds, it added. It issued a schedule of weight standards according to varying heights.

The commission said it expects large fields of applicants because of slack district employment. Beginners in each department start at $320 monthly and advance in six months to $338.

Club Will Name Member To Visit 1959 Car Preview

Within the next week, the Business & Professional Women's Club will select one of its members for a two - day all - expense trip to Detroit to participate in a national opinion panel on 1959 autos that the public will not see until later in the fall.

East Liverpool was selected as a "representative American community," one of those to send representatives to the conference, by Dr. George Gallup of Princeton, N. J., best known for his Gallup Poll operation.

Arranging the opinion survey for the Ford Motor Co., Gallup asked the Chamber of Commerce to select an East Liverpool service club that would in turn designate one of its members to make the trip.

Representatives of the BPW, Kiwanis, Lions, Quota and Rotary Clubs met in the Chamber office Friday to make the selection. As Gallup suggested, the names of the clubs were placed in a hat so the representative organization could be determined by lot.

Quota will furnish the first alternate for the trip and Lions will name the second.

After returning home, the panel member will be given a 1959 auto to drive and report on for 30 days. The community representatives will be given a 1959 auto to drive and report on for 30 days. The community representatives will have a full opportunity to give "frank and confidential opinions about today's autos and register likes and dislikes," Gallup promised.

1 Killed, 2 Injured In One-Car Accident

CALDWELL, Ohio (AP)— Paul Everly, 22, of Summerfield was killed and two others injured late Friday in an automobile crash on a county road about two miles east of here.

Injured in the accident were Ralph Robinson, 32, and Glen Hill, 21, both of Carlisle. Both men were taken to St. Frances Hospital in Cambridge where Robinson was reported in serious condition.

Sheriff's deputies said Everly, the driver of the car, apparently lost control. The auto went off the road, plunged down a hill and hit a tree.

3 Killed, 1 Injured In Headon Collision

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Three persons were killed in a headon auto collision on Ohio 4 about two miles south of Dayton early this morning, the Ohio Highway Patrol reported.

The victims were identified as Frank Mitchell, 40, of Dayton, driver of one of the cars, and Edwin Smith Jr., 27, of Dayton, driver of the second vehicle. An unidentified Negro passenger in Mitchell's car also was killed.

Joe Lewis Peavy, 22, of Dayton, a passenger in Smith's car is in critical condition in St. Elizabeth's Hospital here, the patrol said.

'Political Upset'

FALL RIVER, Mass. (AP) — Campaign workers were stringing a political banner across Broadway. One of the dangling ropes caught on the bumper of a passing car. The car pulled the third floor porch off a house to which the sign was attached. The porch fell on a parked car, causing considerable damage.

Gruen Watch Concern In Cincinnati Closes

CINCINNATI (AP) — Gruen Watch Co., which reported losses of more than three million dollars during the past fiscal year, shut down its watchmaking facilities here Friday.

Gruen officials told the employees of its assembly plant that there is no more work and workers in its Norwood case plant were told the facility is closing. About 110 workers are affected.

Company officials could not be reached for comment.

Samples Wrong Stuff

DENVER (AP) — Scott Calahan's parents stopped in at a used car lot here to look over some cars. Scott, 3 years old, looked for something more interesting. He found it in a gasoline can and sampled the contents. Scott is in Denver General Hospital, doing well.

J-L To Spend $35 Millions

Units At Pittsburgh, Aliquippa To Benefit

PITTSBURGH — The Jones & Laughlin Corp. will spend $35 million on mill improvements at its Pittsburgh and Aliquippa works, increasing the planned projects for the two - year period of 1958 and 1959 to $93 million.

The improved business picture was cited by J. & L. officials as the reason for the expenditure at this time.

Avery C. Adams, president, told stockholders in an August communication that expenditures for the year 1958 are estimated at $49,000,000 of which $19,600,0 will be spent in the second half year.

He also said operations and shipments in the current quarter should be higher than the previous quarter.

The new byproduct coke ovens at Pittsburgh represent a battery replacement at that plant.

The company has had four small sintering machines at Aliquippa but a much more elaborate sintering operation is contemplated in line with cost - reduction practices that are growing in the steel industry.

Sintering is a process under which fine ore is converted into chunks of metal and these, charged into blast furnaces, improve the yield in the production of pig iron.

The Aliquippa sintering plant will have a capacity of 6,000 tons per day, to replace the present output of 1,800 tons daily.

Not Hard To Spot

GRASMERE, N.H. (AP) — Edward E. Spenard, 24, of Manchester, escaped from the House of Correction where he was serving a year for auto larceny. Police said he shouldn't be hard to spot, though. He went home to change into a green and white plaid sports shirt, blue slacks and a tan and yellow jacket.

Teamsters Unit To Launch Probe Of Its Own Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Teamsters Union commission will begin next Thursday its investigation of racketeering in the big transportation union.

After its first meeting Friday, the three-man commission said it will eliminate "corrupting influences in the union wherever we may find them."

George H. Bender, former Republican senator from Ohio, heads the commission, named last Saturday by Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, himself a target of charges by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee. Other members are F. Joseph Donohue, Washington attorney, and retired Judge Ira W. Jayne of Detroit.

Commission members said they will investigate and advise on the question of infiltration of racketeers and gangsters into local and international union offices and on any alliances with racketeers or gangsters.

Meanwhile, the rackets committee's new series of hearings into Teamsters activities was in recess until Tuesday. Harold J. Gibbons, St. Louis Teamsters boss, will be questioned then.

Salvage Diver Has 'Saddest 45 Minutes'

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — The "saddest 45 minutes of my life," mourned Al Mikalow, who smashed with a sledge more than 50 cases of assorted liquors.

Mikalow, a salvage diver, recovered more than 600 bottles from the hulk of the Showboat. The State Alcoholic Beverage Control Department said estuary waters have contaminated the liquor and ordered it destroyed.

1,050 Pupils Due At South Side Schools

Classes To Resume Wednesday For 2 Hookstown Units

Victor S. Thomas Jr., supervising principal of South Side Schools, said an enrollment of about 1,050 is anticipated when classes resume Wednesday in the two buildings near Hookstown.

About 480 students are expected at the junior - senior high school and 575 at the elemtary school.

Tuesday will be an in-service training day for teachers and Wednesday will see full-day classes beginning at 8:45 a. m. for the high school and at 9 for the grade school.

The cafeteria will be open and buses will operate on the same schedule as last year, he said.

There will be one new high school teacher and three in the grades. They are Mrs. Sandra Johns, English and social studies, and Mrs. Emma Gartner, Bradford Bell and John Didich.

Their appointments were approved at a special meeting of the Board of Education Wednesday night.

Reassignments included Mrs. Eleanor Jones, from sixth grade to teach art in both schools, and Mrs. Anthony Patuto, who taught in both buildings, to teach academic subjects full-time in the high school.

Coaching staff members named Wednesday were George Thompson, assistant football coach; David Nichol, assistant basketball coach; Frank Kowalski, wrestling coach, and William Watts, baseball coach.

The board adopted regulations governing the transportation of pupils and their conduct while on the school buses.

Regulations concern seating of the children, transferring to another bus, inspection of buses by drivers, daily cleaning of the vehicles and procedure of stopping buses.

Christian Missionary Work Faces Stern Test In Africa

Christianity is facing a stern test in Africa.

It's so stern, in fact, that Dr. Roy G. Ross, general secretary of the National Council of Churches, has warned that opportunities for Christian missionary work in Africa may soon come to an end.

The problem is basically the same as that which confronts the Western world politically — an aroused spirit of nationalism and a color-consciousness line that is being drawn from the opposite direction.

Why has African nationalism chosen Christianity as one of its antagonists?

Ben J. Marais, professor of Christian history at the University of Pretoria, South Africa, writing in the fortnightly Christianity Today, explains it this way: "For generations we Western Christians have become accustomed to the fact that the nominally Christian nations of Europe or the West were the masters of the world. . . .

"Ours was the religion of the conquering West, of Western man, the rulers of the world."

During the past 400 years, the power exercised by the whites over colored peoples has left "a terrible legacy of racial tensions," adds Chandran Devanesen, a professor at Madras Christian College in India.

The hatred built up by colored peoples, he says, "often makes them blind . . . to the real nature and purpose of the church as a fellowship which seeks to transcend all barriers of race and color."

The surge of nationalism also has sharpened the rivalry between Christianity and Islam, the Christian missionary's oldest organized adversary on the Dark Continent.

The Rev. John McGee, a Southern Baptist missionary stationed in Nigeria, reported recently that the Arab world is raising 50 million dollars for a campaign to make all Africa Moslem.

Islam, as it appears in Africa, is a difficult thing for Christian professional clergy It has no central organization. It makes no organized effort to found schools, hospitals, missions.

Why, then, is Islam such a formidable opponent?

"Every Moslem is a practicing Moslem," says Dr. Erich W Bethmann of Middle East House, New York. "He prays five times a day no matter where he is. He is a living witness to his faith. And he has no color complex."

Ex-Contestant's Statement Denies '21' Show Rigged

NEW YORK (AP) — Producers of the television quiz show "Twenty-one" have released an 18-month old statement signed by Herbert Stempel, a former contestant, denying his recent allegations that the show was not on the level.

Daniel Enright, co-producer of "Twenty-one," Friday turned over the statement, signed by Stempel March 7, 1957, to New York County Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan.

Stempel was quoted in newspapers this week as saying he was coached on answers before he went on the air and then was told to miss a question that enabled Charles van Doren to eliminate him.

A statement issued Friday by Enright said that "other evidence is still being studied by the district attorney's office."

The district attorney's office' investigation of TV shows stemmed from a complaint by a former contestant of the now defunct "Dotto" quiz program.

Newell High Builds Grid Team Around Eight Lettermen

Outlook Fair, Coach Says Of Season Ahead

At the conclusion of last season's play, the 1958 football prospects looked bright for Wells High School at Newell, with nearly an entire team due to return.

But from then until now things have occurred not to the liking of Coach Pete Horoszko to the point where only 8 of the 14 lettermen listed as candidates turned out for practice. Grades, the Navy and changes in addresses were responsible.

However, the eight who are back are well-seasoned and give Newell, in the words of Horoszko, a "fair" outlook for the schedule ahead.

"We're shooting for at least five victories," he ventured cautiously, "with our big problem a lack of depth at every position."

THE BIG GREEN will meet Weirton Madonna in its opener next Saturday night at Weirton. The powerful Dons loom as one of the district's top elevens, with an entire team returning from the winning squad of last year. Madonna defeated Newell last year, 28-7.

Newell previously was scheduled to participate in the grid preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Friday night at Patterson Field against Leetonia, but dropped out because its appearance would force the squad to play two nights in a row.

Horoszko indicated he was "well pleased" with the spirit of the 24-member team now drilling twice a day.

The eight lettermen back in the fold include Dave Cronin, 165-pound senior guard; Steve Norris and Harp McCuen, 150-pound halfbacks; Ron Dunlevy, 178 - pound tackle; Dennis Lee, 146 - pound fullback; Bob Shenton, 150-pound end, and Tom Woods, 125-pound backfield man.

Quarterback Joe Graham a 130-pound junior, is returning from last year's second string and is developing into a fair passer capable of holding down a first-string berth, Horoszko said.

The backfield spots seem to be well in order, with McCune and Norris, both elusive runners, at the halfbacks, Graham at quarterback and Lee at fullback. They will operate from both a T-formation and single wing.

McCUEN, one of the squad's most promising ball carriers, is handling most of the punting chores, with Norris slated to attempt the extra points.

West Virginia teams will not use the new extra-point option ruling while playing in their home state, but the rule will be followed when playing in Ohio.

Teaming with Dunlevy, the squad's heaviest man, at tackle will be George Weirsbicki, a 165-pound junior, who "looks very promising", according to Horoszko. Joe Fuller, 165-pound sophomore, is also slated for duty at the tackle spot.

Graduation claimed six varsity men from the 1957 team — Dave Smith, Doug Mason, Bill Jones, Dick Cawthon, Bernard Siminich and Fred Fisher.

Newell's Out, United In For Grid Preview

United High School at Hanoverton will replace Newell in the fourth annual grid preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club scheduled next Friday night, it was announced today.

United, which has an entire team back from last year's squad which won one and lost six, will battle with Leetonia in the preview opener at 7 p. m.

Coach Pete Horoszko's Newell eleven was forced to drop from the preview because participation would require his gridders to play two straight nights as they meet Madonna at Weirton on Saturday night.

The remainder of the previously announced preview slate remains unchanged, members of the club said.

Following the opening game at 7 between United and Leetonia, Salineville will play Beaver Local at 7:30; Toronto will meet Columbiana at 8 and the East Liverpool Marching Band will perform from 8:30 to 8:45.

The fourth game of the night, Salem vs. Lisbon, gets underway at 8:45 while the finale at 9:15 will pit East Liverpool's Potters against Coach Ken Woods' Wellsville Tigers.

Tickets for the preview went on sale this week and may be purchased at Reark's, Brian's, Heimie's and the Louis-James Clothing Store in East End. Adult tickets — all reserved seats — are $1 while students may purchase tickets at respective schools participating in the preview at 35 cents or 50 cents at the gate on game night.

Ed Hester is general chairman of this year's preview.

Wellsville Club To Buy Film For Grid Games

The Omni Orange and Black Activity Club decided Thursday night to buy film for movies of the preview game and the first game of the football season for Wellsville High School.

The group met informally after "open house" at Nicholson Stadium to acquaint parents with the equipment and training of the squads.

Another meeting will be held within a week when parents of high school students will be urged to attend as the club is the equivalent of a Parent-Teacher Association.

Casey's Worried As Ford's Sidelined With Sore Arm

By The Associated Press

"I'm worried," says Casey Stengel, and that's not quite as preposterous as it sounds.

He reportedly has another two-year contract waiting for him as manager of the New York Yankees at $80,000 a year. And he has a still breezy 10½-game lead en route to his ninth American League pennant.

But, at the moment, he doesn't have Whitey Ford

The Yankees' stubby southpaw ace (14-7) is on the shelf with a sore arm. Ford is no loss in what's left of the AL season, but he could be a real blow in the world series.

Unable to throw a curve without pain since a hurried warm-up August 10, Whitey gave his arm a test Friday night at Washington and it flunked. He faced only two men, got them out, then quit and the Senators made off with a 3-0 victory behind the six-hit pitching of Pete Ramos.

Chicago's second place White Sox picked up a game as Dick Donovan blanked Detroit 3-0 on four hits. Third place Boston whipped Baltimore 5-2. Kansas City landed a virtual tie with Cleveland for sixth by beating the Indians 8-7.

In the National League, second place Pittsburgh shavel Milwaukee's lead to 6½ games by beating the Braves 3-2. Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 4-1, St. Louis beat the Chicago Cubs 7-5 and Cincinnati rapped Philadelphia 5-3.

Ford, winless in two decisions and unable to complete any of four starts since his bullpen blunder, figures his arm trouble is "the same thing I usually get in spring training. I think if I get a rest for about a week, it will be all right."

With Ford forced to quit, Stengel brought Murry Dickson on in relief. The little veteran, making his debut as a Yankee after last week's purchase from Kansas City, gave up only four hits in his 5 1-3 innings.

Ramos checked the champs on two hits over the last seven innings for his third shutout in a 12-13 record.

Flint Edges Dayton In NABF Tournament

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Pitcher Bob Crane backed up a five-hit game by singling home the winning run in Flint's 3-2 victory over Dayton, Ohio Friday in the opening round of the National Amateur Baseball Federation Tournament.

Pittsburgh beat Lorain, Ohio 10-2; Dearborn, Mich., defeated Chicago 7-6, and Memphis downed Atlanta 10-5 in other games in the opening round of the double elimination tournament.

Lorain meets Atlanta, and Chicago faces Dayton today.

The tournament ends Monday.

Father, Son Golf Tourney Won By Wells

Joe Wells Jr. and Joe Wells III teamed to capture the Father-Son golf tournament Friday at the East Liverpool Country Club. They carded a 36 for the nine holes of medal play, using selective drives and alternate shots.

In the 13-15 age group, Harold D. Putt and son, Bobby Putt, shot a 40 to win in that bracket, and in the 12-under group Dr. R. J. Kinsey and his son, Ronnie, shot a 44 to win that event.

Closest to the pin on No. 6 hole in the 15 years and under group was Dick Heddleston who also stroked the longest drive off No. 1 tee in the 12 years and under group.

A cup was awarded the Wells team for the championship and other prizes for the tournament were awarded at a dinner on the patio following the event.

Dodgers, Cards, Reds Win

Pirates Nose Out Braves To Cut Lead To 6½ Games

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Friend finally has won 18. Dick Stuart is no flop. And the Pittsburgh Pirates? Man, they're blowin' the foam off the beer in Milwaukee.

The barreling Bucs got off running in their week-long showdown with the Braves by winning 3-2 at Milwaukee Friday night, trimming the champs' National League lead to 6½ games again.

The second place Pirates trail the Braves by six games in the lost column—and they have six left to play with 'em, single games today and Sunday at Milwaukee and four in Pittsburgh next weekend.

Friend, the workhorse of the Buc staff, needel some relief help — and got plenty of it from Don Gross — at the end, but he had enough to out-duel southpaw Warren Spahn and move out all alone as the NL's top winner.

The Pirate right-hander now is 18-13. Spahnie, firing for his ninth season of 20 or more victories, is 17-10.

Los Angeles knocked off third place San Francisco 4-1 and retained fourth place over the St. Louis Cardinals, who defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-5. Cincinnati rapped Philadelphia 5-3.

In the American League, Pete Ramos blanked the New York Yankees on six hits for a 3-0 Washington victory. The Chicago White Sox trimmed the Yankees' lead to 10½ games by belting Detroit 3-0 on Dick Donovan's four-hitter. Boston beat Baltimore 5-2 and Kansas City defeated Cleveland 8-7.

Friend, now 4-1 against the Braves and 2-1 in duels with Spahn, had a two-run lead and a six-hitter going into the ninth. Then Eddie Mathews belted his 26th home run and Hank Aaron, who was 4-for-4, singled. Gross, a lefty, came on, got left-handed batter Wes Covington on a double-play, and then got left-handed batter Frank Torre on a ground ball that bagged it.

The Dodgers handed the Giants their eighth defeat in 10 games behind the five-hit pitching of Don Drysdale and home runs by Carl Furillo and Don Zimmer. Drysdale (10-11) had a three-hit shutout until Leon Wagner homered with two out in the eighth. Lefty Paul Giel (4-4) lost it.

Wally Moon drove in three runs for the Cards with a home run and a two-run triple while Larry Jackson won his 12th with his sixth straight complete game. Dick Drott (6-11) was the loser.

Bob Purkey, the right-hander the Pirates traded to Cincinnati for Gross last December, won his 15th, tops on the Redleg staff, with an eight-hitter. The Reds also had eight hits, bunching four singles with a walk and an infield out for four runs in the fifth. Loser Don Cardwell (2-3) had given up just one hit 'til then.

Groza, Mitchell Shine As Browns Win, 13-10

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The trusty toe of veteran Lou Groza and the brilliant running of rookie halfback Bobby Mitchell brought a big smile to Cleveland Coach Paul Brown's face today.

It was that duo that carried the Browns to a 13-10 National Football League exhibition victory over the Los Angeles Rams here Friday night before 41,387 in the Coliseum.

Groza supplied the "kicker" with a tremendous field goal from the Cleveland side of the 50-yard line with only 15 seconds remaining in the game. It was his second three-pointer of the period. He had booted a 15-yard field goal earlier to pull the Browns into a 10-10 tie.

Mitchell picked up 114 yards in nine carries during the first half and set up Cleveland's only touchdown with two fine runs — one a 36-yard sprint down the sideline. He carried again for 13 yards on a pitchout, then picked up seven more. Fullback Jim Brown smashed the final yard for the score. Groza converted and the Browns led 7-0 in the first period.

The Rams got a field goal early in the second period on Paige Cothren's kick from 22 yards out. They moved 45 yards for a touchdown midway in the third quarter.

The score was set up when Don Borroughs recovered a fumble by fullback Brown. Quarterback Billy Wade passed to end Joe Marconi, who was hit at the line of scrimmage by linebacker Walt Michaels but fought away and went 11 yards into the end zone. Cothren converted to give the Rams a 10-7 edge.

Cleveland drove 80 yards in 14 plays in the final period but were stopped when quarterback Milt Plum's pass to flanker Ray Renfro on third down was dropped in the end zone. Groza then kicked the tieing field goal from the 15.

Newell High Builds Grid Team Around Eight Lettermen

Outlook Fair, Coach Says Of Season Ahead

At the conclusion of last season's play, the 1958 football prospects looked bright for Wells High School at Newell, with nearly an entire team due to return.

But from then until now things have occurred not to the liking of Coach Pete Horoszko to the point where only 8 of the 14 lettermen listed as candidates turned out for practice. Grades, the Navy and changes in addresses were responsible.

However, the eight who are back are well-seasoned and give Newell, in the words of Horoszko, a "fair" outlook for the schedule ahead.

"We're shooting for at least five victories," he ventured cautiously, "with our big problem a lack of depth at every position."

THE BIG GREEN will meet Weirton Madonna in its opener next Saturday night at Weirton. The powerful Dons loom as one of the district's top elevens, with an entire team returning from the winning squad of last year. Madonna defeated Newell last year, 28-7.

Newell previously was scheduled to participate in the grid preview of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Friday night at Patterson Field against Leetonia, but dropped out because its appearance would force the squad to play two nights in a row.

Horoszko indicated he was "well pleased" with the spirit of the 24-member team now drilling twice a day.

The eight lettermen back in the fold include Dave Cronin, 165-pound senior guard; Steve Norris and Harp McCuen, 150-pound halfbacks; Ron Dunlevy, 178 - pound tackle; Dennis Lee, 146 - pound fullback; Bob Shenton, 150-pound end, and Tom Woods, 125-pound backfield man.

Quarterback Joe Graham a 130-pound junior, is returning from last year's second string and is developing into a fair passer capable of holding down a first-string berth, Horoszko said.

The backfield spots seem to be well in order, with McCune and Norris, both elusive runners, at the halfbacks, Graham at quarterback and Lee at fullback. They will operate from both a T-formation and single wing.

McCUEN, one of the squad's most promising ball carriers, is handling most of the punting chores, with Norris slated to attempt the extra points.

West Virginia teams will not use the new extra-point option ruling while playing in their home state, but the rule will be followed when playing in Ohio.

Teaming with Dunlevy, the squad's heaviest man, at tackle will be George Weirsbicki, a 165-pound junior, who "looks very promising", according to Horoszko. Joe Fuller, 165-pound sophomore, is also slated for duty at the tackle spot.

Shenton and Kenny Arnott, 150 pounds, get the nod at the end positions. Cronin is a certain starter at the right guard position and several others are battling it out for the other guard spot.

Graduation claimed six varsity men from the 1957 team — Dave Smith, Doug Mason, Bill Jones, Dick Cawthon, Bernard Siminich and Fred Fisher.

Horoszko, beginning his fifth year as head coach of the Big Green, is being assisted by veteran John Robison, basketball mentor.

The tournament ends Monday.

Father, Son Golf Tourney Won By Wells

Joe Wells Jr. and Joe Wells III teamed to capture the Father-Son golf tournament Friday at the East Liverpool Country Club. They carded a 36 for the nine holes of medal play, using selective drives and alternate shots.

In the 13-15 age group, Harold D. Putt and son, Bobby Putt, shot a 40 to win in that bracket, and in the 12-under group Dr. R. J. Kinsey and his son, Ronnie, shot a 44 to win that event.

Closest to the pin on No. 6 hole in the 15 years and under group was Dick Heddleston who also stroked the longest drive off No. 1 tee in the 12 years and under group.

A cup was awarded the Wells team for the championship and other prizes for the tournament were awarded at a dinner on the patio following the event.

Pirates Nose Out Braves To Cut Lead To 6½ Games

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Friend finally has won 18. Dick Stuart is no flop. And the Pittsburgh Pirates? Man, they're blowin' the foam off the beer in Milwaukee.

The barreling Bucs got off running in their week-long showdown with the Braves by winning 3-2 at Milwaukee Friday night, trimming the champs' National League lead to 6½ games again.

The second place Pirates trail the Braves by six games in the lost column—and they have six left to play with 'em, single games today and Sunday at Milwaukee and four in Pittsburgh next weekend.

Friend, the workhorse of the Buc staff, needed some relief help — and got plenty of it from Don Gross — at the end, but he had enough to out-duel southpaw Warren Spahn and move out all alone as the NL's top winner.

The Pirate right-hander now is 18-13. Spahnie, firing for his ninth season of 20 or more victories, is 17-10.

Los Angeles knocked off third place San Francisco 4-1 and retained fourth place over the St. Louis Cardinals, who defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-5. Cincinnati rapped Philadelphia 5-3.

In the American League, Pete Ramos blanked the New York Yankees on six hits for a 3-0 Washington victory. The Chicago White Sox trimmed the Yankees' lead to 10½ games by belting Detroit 3-0 on Dick Donovan's four-hitter. Boston beat Baltimore 5-2 and Kansas City defeated Cleveland 8-7.

Friend, now 4-1 against the Braves and 2-1 in duels with Spahn, had a two-run lead and a six-hitter going into the ninth. Then Eddie Mathews belted his 28th home run and Hank Aaron, who was 4-for-4, singled. Gross, a lefty, came on, got left-handed batter Wes Covington on a double-play, and then got left-handed batter Frank Torre on a ground ball that bagged it.

The Dodgers handed the Giants their eighth defeat in 10 games behind the five-hit pitching of Don Drysdale and home runs by Carl Furillo and Don Zimmer. Drysdale (10-11) had a three-hit shutout until Leon Wagner homered with two out in the eighth. Lefty Paul Giel (4-4) lost it.

Wally Moon drove in three runs for the Cards with a home run and a two-run triple while Larry Jackson won his 12th with his sixth straight complete game. Dick Drott (6-11) was the loser.

Bob Purkey, the right-hander the Pirates traded to Cincinnati for Gross last December, won his 15th, tops on the Redleg staff, with an eight-hitter. The Reds also had eight hits, bunching four singles with a walk and an infield out for four runs in the fifth. Loser Don Cardwell (2-3) had given up just one hit 'til then.

Groza, Mitchell Shine As Browns Win, 13-10

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The trusty toe of veteran Lou Groza and the brilliant running of rookie halfback Bobby Mitchell brought a big smile to Cleveland Coach Paul Brown's face today.

It was that duo that carried the Browns to a 13-10 National Football League exhibition victory over the Los Angeles Rams here Friday night before 41,387 in the Coliseum.

Groza supplied the "kicker" with a tremendous field goal from the Cleveland side of the 50-yard line with only 15 seconds remaining in the game. It was his second three-pointer of the period. He had booted a 15-yard field goal earlier to pull the Browns into a 10-10 tie.

Mitchell picked up 114 yards in nine carries during the first half and set up Cleveland's only touchdown with two fine runs — one a 36-yard sprint down the sideline. He carried again for 13 yards on a pitchout, then picked up seven more. Fullback Jim Brown smashed the final yard for the score. Groza converted and the Browns led 7-0 in the first period.

The Rams got a field goal early in the second period on Paige Cothren's kick from 22 yards out. They moved 45 yards for a touchdown midway in the third quarter.

The score was set up when Don Borroughs recovered a fumble by fullback Brown. Quarterback Billy Wade passed to end Joe Marconi, who was hit at the line of scrimmage by linebacker Walt Michaels but fought away and went 11 yards into the end zone. Cothren converted to give the Rams a 10-7 edge.

Cleveland drove 80 yards in 14 plays in the final period but were stopped when quarterback Milt Plum's pass to flanker Ray Renfro on third down was dropped in the end zone. Groza then kicked the tieing field goal from the 15.

Pirate Manager Denies He's Applying Reverse Psychology

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pittsburgh Pirates denied today that he is using reverse psychology on his fast-stepping Bucs by not talking pennant.

"When you start talking psychology," he said, "you're out of my world. All we're doing is playing 'em one at a time."

"Remember," he added with a wry grin, 'I only had a high school education."

The subject of psychology came up when Murtaugh was reminded that neither he nor his players talk about the obvious:

They've won 16 of their last 23 games, including Friday night's 3-2 decision over the National League leading Milwaukee Braves. They're in second place, 6½ games behind with 27 to play—a big order, but not an impossible one.

"We're not thinking in terms of first or second place," Murtaugh said.

"We're just playing today's game today. I'm not talking pennant and neither are the players, but that doesn't mean I'm using psychology on them. I don't tell them how to think or what to say."

Cleveland Lumber Yard Fire Causes $250,000 Damage

CLEVELAND (AP)—At least a quarter of a million dollars damage resulted from a spectacular lumber yard fire in suburban South Euclid Friday night. Flames cast an orange glow for miles around on the east side.

Explosions rocked the South Euclid Lumber Yard Co. at 501 South Green Road when five company trucks blew up in flames. Several railroad cars also burned.

More than 5,000 persons were lured to the roaring blaze which destroyed about two million board feet of lumber in less than two hours.

Fire chief William Fibich said no one was injured.

The damage estimate was made by the company's vice president, Leonard Nyman, who said insurance would cover the loss.

The fire, of undetermined origin, was under control within two hours.

Killed In Crash

JACKSON, Ohio (AP) — Clyde L. Sheward, 71, of Jackson was killed Friday in a three-car crash on Ohio 124, four miles west of here. Injured in the accident were Sheward's wife, Clara, 64, and Ralph Kern of Rt. 1, Beaver.

Round Table Eyes All-Time Money Mark

CHICAGO (AP) — Travis M. Kerr's Round Table can become thoroughbred racing's all-time high money winner Monday.

The 4-year-old bay colt is among nine likely starters for the Washington Park Handicap, run in Arlington Park this year in closing Chicago's major thoroughbred racing season.

With all nine at the post, the mile fixture would gross $139,150 and net the winner $93,675.

Round Table's winnings are $1,215,114 and he needs only $73,452 to surpass the retired Nashua's mark of $1,288,565.

"If the track comes up muddy, chances are we'll scratch," said Round Table's trainer, Bill Molter. "If it's good, we'll go."

The distance of a mile may be a little short for Round Table, who finished fifth in his last dirt start, the Equipoise Mile. But he was only four lengths off winning Swoon's Son, with Bardstown, Indian Creek and Clem sandwiched between.

These same horses again appear to be Round Table's strongest challengers, along with Nadir, a supplementary nominee and only three year old in the field.

Willie Shoemaker, the country's leading jockey, will be aboard Round Table.

Swoon's Son has never lost on Arlington Park's main course and will be ridden by Dave Erb. The E. Gay Drake champion and Round Table will be top weighted at 131 pounds. Other probable starters are Tempest II, Solution and Hoop Band, an entry with Indian Creek.

Algerian Terrorism Continues In Paris

PARIS (AP) — An Algerian flipped a pistol out of his clothes in a narrow passage in a subway station early today and shot a French soldier in the stomach.

The shooting was a continuation of the terror reign the North Africans have imposed on Paris as part of a campaign to win freedom for Algeria, where a guerrilla war against the French Army has been going on for almost four years.

The soldier was taken to a hospital in a serious condition.

Ted Williams Reaches Another Milestone—40

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams reached another milestone today—his 40th birthday.

But the Boston slugger who has spent half his life in a Red Sox uniform wasn't expected to hear the cheers of Fenway Park fans. Ted has been sidelined with virus since Tuesday.

Aussie Star Eyes Title In U.S. Tennis

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Modesty dictates that Mal Anderson avoid any predictions of winning the National Tennis Championship.

"But," said the tall Australian Davis Cup ace today, "I want to see the guy who is going to lick me."

The handful of spectators who showed up for the opening of the 10-day tournament in the West Side Tennis Club Friday were shocked when Anderson dropped the first set of his first-round match to Bob Perry of Los Angeles.

Once Anderson got going, Perry didn't have a chance. The final score was 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

There were a few minor upsets in the opening day's play. Billy Knight of England ousted Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., one of the better young players in the U.S., 6-3, 6-3, 6-8, 4-6, 7-5. In the women's division, Jeanne Arth of St. Paul dropped fifth-seeded Janet Hopps of Seattle 1-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Hamilton Richardson, the top American seed (No. 3) advanced at the expense of Tony Vincent of New York, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1. Barry MacKay of Dayton, No. 5, the only other seeded player to see action, vanquished Jim Shakespeare of Hollywood, Fla., 6-2, 6-1, 6-2.

The Equator passes through the islands of Sumatra, Borneo, Celebes and Gilolo.

Jumps To Death

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unidentified man, believed to be about 60, jumped 100 feet to his death from the Detroit-Superior Ave. high level bridge Friday night.

The man's body floated in the river and was removed by police. He was pronounced dead at St. Vincent Charity Hospital and the body taken to the morgue. The man carried no identification papers, police said.

Killed In Crash

JACKSON, Ohio (AP) — Clyde L. Sheward, 71, of Jackson was killed Friday in a three-car crash on Ohio 124, four miles west of here. Injured in the accident were Sheward's wife, Clara, 64, and Ralph Kern of Rt. 1, Beaver.

Round Table Eyes All-Time Money Mark

CHICAGO (AP) — Travis M. Kerr's Round Table can become thoroughbred racing's all-time high money winner Monday.

The 4-year-old bay colt is among nine likely starters for the Washington Park Handicap, run in Arlington Park this year in closing Chicago's major thoroughbred racing season.

With all nine at the post, the mile fixture would gross $139,150 and net the winner $93,675.

Round Table's winnings are $1,215,114 and he needs only $73,452 to surpass the retired Nashua's mark of $1,288,565.

"If the track comes up muddy, chances are we'll scratch," said Round Table's trainer, Bill Molter. "If it's good, we'll go."

The distance of a mile may be a little short for Round Table, who finished fifth in his last dirt start, the Equipoise Mile. But he was only four lengths off winning Swoon's Son, with Bardstown, Indian Creek and Clem sandwiched between.

These same horses again appear to be Round Table's strongest challengers, along with Nadir, a supplementary nominee and only three year old in the field.

Willie Shoemaker, the country's leading jockey, will be aboard Round Table.

Swoon's Son has never lost on Arlington Park's main course and will be ridden by Dave Erb. The E. Gay Drake champion and Round Table will be top weighted at 131 pounds. Other probable starters are Tempest II, Solution and Hoop Band, an entry with Indian Creek.

Algerian Terrorism Continues In Paris

PARIS (AP) — An Algerian flipped a pistol out of his clothes in a narrow passage in a subway station early today and shot a French soldier in the stomach.

The shooting was a continuation of the terror reign the North Africans have imposed on Paris as part of a campaign to win freedom for Algeria, where a guerrilla war against the French Army has been going on for almost four years.

The soldier was taken to a hospital in a serious condition.

Ted Williams Reaches Another Milestone—40

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams reached another milestone today—his 40th birthday.

But the Boston slugger who has spent half his life in a Red Sox uniform wasn't expected to hear the cheers of Fenway Park fans. Ted has been sidelined with virus since Tuesday.

Aussie Star Eyes Title In U.S. Tennis

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Modesty dictates that Mal Anderson avoid any predictions of winning the National Tennis Championship.

"But," said the tall Australian Davis Cup ace today, "I want to see the guy who is going to lick me."

The handful of spectators who showed up for the opening of the 10-day tournament in the West Side Tennis Club Friday were shocked when Anderson dropped the first set of his first-round match to Bob Perry of Los Angeles.

Once Anderson got going, Perry didn't have a chance. The final score was 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

There were a few minor upsets in the opening day's play. Billy Knight of England ousted Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., one of the better young players in the U.S., 6-3, 6-3, 6-8, 4-6, 7-5. In the women's division, Jeanne Arth of St. Paul dropped fifth-seeded Janet Hopps of Seattle 1-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Hamilton Richardson, the top American seed (No. 3) advanced at the expense of Tony Vincent of New York, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1. Barry MacKay of Dayton, No. 5, the only other seeded player to see action, vanquished Jim Shakespeare of Hollywood, Fla., 6-2, 6-1, 6-2.

The Equator passes through the islands of Sumatra, Borneo, Celebes and Gilolo.

Jumps To Death

CLEVELAND (AP)—An unidentified man, believed to be about 60, jumped 100 feet to his death from the Detroit - Superior Ave. high level bridge Friday night.

The man's body floated in the river and was removed by police. He was pronounced dead at St. Vincent Charity Hospital and the body taken to the morgue. The man carried no identification papers, police said.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Board of Township Trustees of Madison Township, Columbiana County, Ohio passed on the 7th day of July, 1958, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Madison Township at a General Election to be held in Madison Township, Columbiana County, Ohio, at the regular places of voting therein, on Tuesday, the 4th day of November, 1958, the question of levying a tax, in excess of the ten mill limitation, for the benefit of Madison Township for the purpose of providing an adequate amount for fire protection in said township.

Said tax being: an additional tax of one (1) mill to run for five (5) years at a rate not exceeding one (1) mill for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to Ten Cents ($0.10) for each one hundred dollars of valuation for each of the tax years 1958, 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962, including a levy upon the tax duplicate of the current year.

The Polls for said Election will be open at 6:30 o'clock A.M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P.M Eastern Standard Time of said day.

By order of the Board of Elections, of Columbiana County, Ohio.

C. L. STACEY, Chairman
Frank R. O'Hanlon, Clerk
E. L. Review Aug. 9, 16, 23, 30, 1958.

LEGAL NOTICE

By virtue of execution issued out of Municipal Court of East Liverpool, Ohio, in the case of Columbiana County Finance Co., Assignee for the Smith Motor Sales vs. Carl J. Industry Area Schools Await 887 Students

250 Of West Beaver District Will Attend Midland High School

Some 887 students are expected Wednesday when classes resume in the three elementary schools in the Western Beaver County School District, Frank Meredith, supervising principal, said.

About 534 students are expected at Fairview School, 290 at Logan School in Ohio View and 60 at Industry School.

About 250 students from the district will attend Midland High School.

Tuesday, teachers will meet with the supervising principal from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. for instructions and orientation.

There will be full-day classes Wednesday except for pupils in Grades 1-4 at Fairview School and those in Grades 1 and 2 in Logan School, who will attend half-day sessions again this year.

There will be two sections of 1-4 graders at Fairview; one will return from 8:30 a. m. to 12:25 p. m. and the other section from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m.

At Logan School, second graders will attend from 8:30 a. m. to 12:25 p. m. and first graders from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Full-day students will attend from 8:30 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The same bus schedule used last year will be followed. The cafeteria of the Fairview School will operate the first day.

Pupils who will attend Midland High School have been getting tuition cards this week at the Fairview School. New students in the area have also been registering at the school.

Parents of the first grade children who did not present birth and vaccination certificates to the school nurse during pre - school clinics, should send both records the first day of school.

New teachers include Mrs. Ruth Reynolds who will teach the first grade in the afternoons at Fairview School, and Charles Smith, who has returned from the Army, will teach sixth and seventh grades at Fairview.

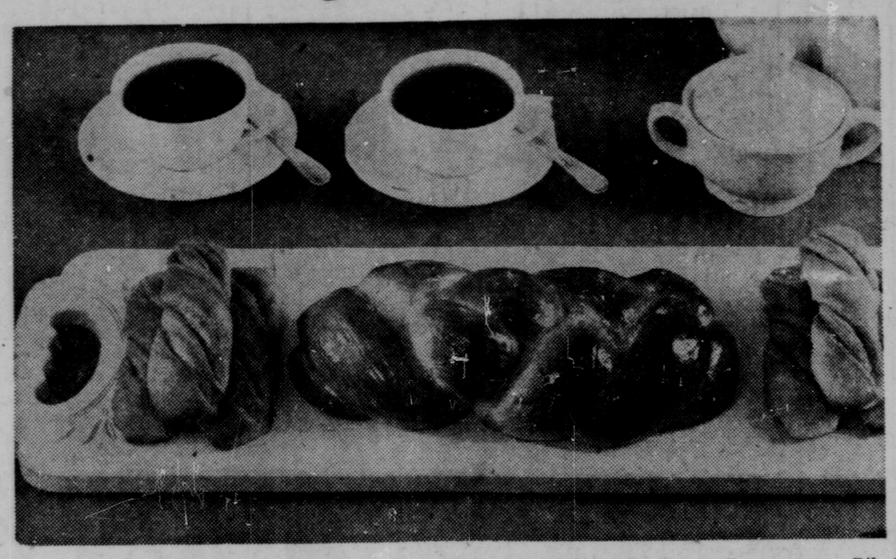
Vacation DAZE

Before leaving on vacation there is one thing you should never forget to do. You may have to board out the cat. You'll certainly have to turn off the electricity, and see that all the doors and windows are locked . . . And there's another important thing, have your vacation pak saved. It is the daily Review saved while you vacation.

Just call FU 5-4545 or tell your carrier. Your newspapers will be saved and delivered in a special Vacation Package when you return. You'll enjoy this modern way of catching up on news missed. There's no extra charge for this service and you enjoy two wohle weeks of your favorite comic characters. You'll have a record of the sport news and the society happenings. There's no better way to find out what's been going on in the hometown than through your newspaper. Order your Vacation-pak today, so you won't have to say "I Forgot" when you return.

Basic Yeast Dough Yields Many Variations



Here is a new tested recipe for a basic refrigerator dough that has many interesting possibilities for the home baker, especially since it will keep in the refrigerator for about five days.

As a starter we have two recipes which can be made from this basic yeast dough — Cinnamon Twists and a Glazed Braided Loaf.

Basic Refrigerator Dough

2 packages or cakes yeast. active dry or compressed
½ cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
¾ cup hot water
½ cup sugar
1-3 cup shortening
1 tablespoon salt
1 egg, beaten
3-½ cups sifted flour
1 cup instant nonfat dry milk powder

Sprinkle or crumble yeast into ½ cup water (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast or lukewarm for compressed yeast); let stand until dissolved. Stir sugar, shortening and salt into the hot water.

Cool mixture to lukewarm; add yeast. Add egg and two cups of flour; beat until smooth. Sift together remaining flour and instant Starlac nonfat dry milk powder.

Stir into mixture. Place dough in a greased bowl; brush top with waxed paper. Store in refrigerator at least 2 hours before using (will keep about 5 days). When ready to use punch down dough and cut off amount needed.

Glazed Braided Loaf

Use one - half the Basic Refrigerator Dough. Divide into 3 equal parts: roll each into a strand about 14 inches long. Place 2 strands on greased baking sheet, in shape of X.

Place remaining strand lengthwise across center of X. Braid loosely from center to end; always cross with bottom strand. Pinch ends of strands together and tuck under braid. Repeat braid procedure with other half.

Cover lightly with damp cloth. Let rise in warm place until double in bulk, 1 to 2 hours. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until golden brown, about 25 to 30 minutes. Brush or spread hot glaze on braid.

Glaze For Braid

2 tablespoons light corn syrup
4½ teaspoons butter
½ teaspoon vanilla

Combine corn syrup and butter in small saucepan. Bil 2 minutes, over low heat, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Stir in vaniila. Brush or spread hot blaze on braid.

Cinnamon Twists

(Makes 12 twists)

2 tablespoons melted butter
½ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons cinnamon

Use one - half the Basic Refrigerator Dough. Roll into 12-inch square; brush with butter. Lightly mark into thirds. Combine sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle center section of dough with 3 tablespoons of the mixture.

Fold one end section over center; sprinkle with 3 tablespoons of sugar - cinnamon mixture. Fold over remaining section of dough. Cut into 12 strips 1-inch by 4-inches.

Hold both ends of strip; twist tightly in opposite directions. Pinch each end together firmly to seal. Place about 1-½-inches apart on greased baking sheet.

Cover lightly with damp cloth. Let rise in warm place until double in bulk, 1 to 2 hours. Sprinkle tops with remaining sugar-cinnamon mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F. until golden brown, 20 to 25 minutes).

Pentagon Shies From Report On Moon Monitoring

WASHINGTON (AP) — Has the United States developed electronic gadgets which can use the moon to monitor what's going on all over the world?

Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa) made that claim Friday in Holland.

But the Pentagon, hours later, would only say:

"Published reports attributed to a congressman do not coincide with any available information concerning current Department of Defense projects."

But this appeared to conflict with remarks made last April to a special House space committee by Rear Adm. John T. Hayward, the Navy's research chief.

Hayward then replied affirmatively when Fulton asked whether this country has it "within our power soon to monitor the whole world. . . the capability through electronic means to use the moon as a reconnaissance satellite. . .?

Fulton spoke of the new development at the International Astronautical Federation meeting at the Hague.

Possible Peril Cited At Peace Atoms Parley

GENEVA (AP) — An American scientist said today Swiss authorities had expressed concern over possible dangers from radioactivity at the U. S. scientific exhibition for the U. N. atoms-for-peace conference.

"But we have been able to assure the Swiss there was absolutely nothing to worry about," said William Harris, one of six scientists sent to Geneva by the Atomic Energy Commission's health and safety laboratory in New York.

His job is to keep check on the level of radioactivity produced by apparatus on display.

Strangles To Death

CANTON (AP)—Vernon Glover Jr., 13, was strangled to death in the basement of his home Friday when a jump rope accidently became caught around his neck and he tripped on the stairs.

Tavern At Irondale Robbed Of Cash, Liquor

IRONDALE — Jefferson County sheriff's deputies are investigating the robbery of a tavern sometime Thursday night when thieves made off with liquor and cigarettes after rifling the cash drawer.

The Charles Warden Tavern on Main St. was looted of about four fifths of whisky, approximately $100 worth of cigarettes and several hundred dollars in currency from the cash register, deputies reported.

The theft was discovered early Friday morning by Warren White, a tavern employe. Entrance was gained through a rear door that had been pried. Fingerprints were being taken by the sheriff's office.

Hamilton UAW Votes Strike End But Urges Talks

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Striking United Auto Workers have agreed to end their wildcat walkout at General Motors' Fisher Body plant here if management will sit down and talk over grievances.

About 1,900 of the 2,500 employees of the plant voted nearly unanimously Friday to return to work next Monday — Labor Day — on the 10 p.m. shift. All are members of Local 233.

But they stipulated that negotiators confer next Tuesday night. If the grievances are not ironed out, union officials promised to petition the international union for a strike sanction.

The walkout started last Wednesday.

The strikers contended that plant officials were ignoring seniority and job classifications, and that the company was taking disciplinary action without union representation.

Killed By Truck

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Coleen Harrington, 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie J. Harrington of Elyria, was killed Friday when she was run over by a truck driven by her half-brother, Clarence Ray Harrington, 22.

Akron Man Sues Summit Sheriff For $100,000

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Louis Gordon of Akron filed suit for $100,000 in Common Pleas Court Friday against Summit County Sheriff Russell M. Bird.

He claimed the sheriff had caused him to lose his job as a plant guard at the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.

In a separate suit, Gordon asked $25,000 damages from the sheriff's bonding Company, the Glens Falls Insurance Co. of Cleveland.

Gordon, 55, said in his petition that he lost his job at Goodyear as a result of Bird revoking his commission as a special deputy sheriff last March. He said he had held the commisson since 1943.

Sheriff Bird said that Gordon abused his privileges as a special deputy, but did not elaborate.

British Fish Boats Will Resist Seizure

LONDON (AP) — Secret orders opened at sea by British trawlers today directed them to offer passive resistance to any seizure attempt by Iceland gunboats. About 50 British trawlers supported by the Royal Navy Fishery Protection Squadron headed defiantly to challenge the Icelandic edict banning foreign fishermen from within 12 minutes of the island's coast.

The showdown comes at midnight Sunday when the Icelandic order is effective.

Skippers of the trawlers were instructed to ignore any attempt to interfere with them, to refuse to haul in their fishing gear if told to do so and in no way to facilitate the Icelandic boarding parties.

Resumes Publication

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The independent newspaper Indonesia Raya resumed publication today with the name of Mochtar Lubis on the masthead as editor. Lubis had been under house arrest by the army for 21 months. But the paper had been publishing off and on during that time.

Annual Election Held

Present Officers Retained For County Cancer Group

Mrs. Wayne Calhoun of Lisbon, president, and other officers of the Columbiana County Chapter of the American Cancer Society were returned at the annual election Thursday night at the Lisbon Village Hall.

They are Mrs. Edna Jones of East Liverpool, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Simpson of East Palestine, secretary, and Mrs. Mary McCullough of East Liverpool, treasurer.

Mrs. Jeanette Carpenter headed the nominating committee which included Mrs. Josephine Furey and Louis Moushey of Salem.

Walter A. Hunston of East Palestine reported on the annual Cancer Fund drive for this year, and accepted the chairmanship for the 1959 campaign.

A report on unit services showed 132 active cases aided and 79 deaths. The services include transportation, medication, dressings and loan closet supplies.

Charles Neal of Lisbon spoke on his trip to Washington as the Ohio representative to the Cured Cancer Congress. Dr. J. A. Fraser discussed the aspects of fund raising from the physicians' viewpoint. He said the drive provides a good opportunity for public education concerning the disease.

Mrs. Genevieve Weber, a charter member, discussed the growth of the organization since 1948 when it was known as the Women's Field Army in the fight against cancer.

Moushey, representing the United Commercial Travelers Club, discussed their part in the successful Salem campaign, Carl Potter, president of the Lisbin Lions Club, and Harry Longnecker of the club's health committee, attended.

The education committee reported on films and literature used during the year. The material is available to clubs and schools.

A student nurse scholarship was authorized for a county girl to be selected on scholastic ability and other high school accomplishments.

Von Braun Says Rocket Parts Collided To Ruin Explorer V

AMSTERDAM (AP) — A high altitude collision between parts of its rocket units ruined the launching of Explorer V, Dr. Wernher von Braun reported to world astronauts today.

The first stage booster rocket had separated after burnout when gases and liquids remaining in it expanded in the vacuum of space and gave it a little extra thrust, Von Braun said.

This sped it up so it hit the instrument part of the rocket, knocking the final stages off in the wrong direction from an orbit. All three remaining stages of the rocket had fired perfectly.

Von Braun, the German-born director of U.S. Army rocketry, said special precautions were being taken to avoid recurrences of "this most unlucky incident."

Explorer V was sent aloft from Cape Canveral, Fla., last Sunday morning. The military usually does not announce the technical reasons for failures and has disclosed nothing on this one up to now. But it sent word to Van Braun, who has been in Amsterdam all week.

He presented a 90-minute detailed and technical report on all phases of Explorer satellites at the closing day of the 9th annual assembly of the International Astronautic Federation.

He congratulated Soviet scientists "for the technical feats achieved in recent months" and said that competition was of very useful value.

"I would like to say to our Soviet colleagues that we will certainly be up there with you, collecting data in more ambitious undertakings which will follow in due course," Von Braun said.

2 Given Six Months On Moonshine Charge

CINCINNATI (AP) — Government agents say two Scioto County men made only about three quarts of illegal whisky with a still before they were arrested.

The two, David F. Flythe, 52, and Glenn E. Barker, 36, of Wheelersburg, were each sentenced on moonshine charges to six months in jail by U.S. District Judge John H. Druffel.

Gobel's TV 'Wife' To Be Real-Life Bride

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Jeff Donnell, who gained television fame as comedian George Gobel's make-believe wife, will become a real-life bride Monday.

She and John Bricker, advertising executive, said Friday they will be married at the Congregational Church of the Chimes in nearby Van Nuys.

Each has been married previously. Miss Donnell was divorced from actor Aldo Ray.

Industry Area Schools Await 887 Students

250 Of West Beaver District Will Attend Midland High School

Some 887 students are expected Wednesday when classes resume in the three elementary schools in the Western Beaver County School District, Frank Meredith, supervising principal, said.

About 534 students are expected at Fairview School, 290 at Logan School in Ohio View and 60 at Industry School.

About 250 students from the district will attend Midland High School.

Tuesday, teachers will meet with the supervising principal from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. for instructions and orientation.

There will be full-day classes Wednesday except for pupils in Grades 1-4 at Fairview School and those in Grades 1 and 2 in Logan School, who will attend half-day sessions again this year.

There will be two sections of 1-4 graders at Fairview; one will return from 8:30 a. m. to 12:25 p. m. and the other section from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m.

At Logan School, second graders will attend from 8:30 a. m. to 12:25 p. m. and first graders from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Full-day students will attend from 8:30 a. m. to 3 p. m.

The same bus schedule used last year will be followed. The cafeteria of the Fairview School will operate the first day.

Pupils who will attend Midland High School have been getting tuition cards this week at the Fairview School. New students in the area have also been registering at the school.

Parents of the first grade children who did not present birth and vaccination certificates to the school nurse during pre-school clinics should send both records the first day of school.

New teachers include Mrs. Ruth Reynolds who will teach the first grade in the afternoons at Fairview School, and Charles Smith, who has returned from the Army, will teach sixth and seventh grades at Fairview.

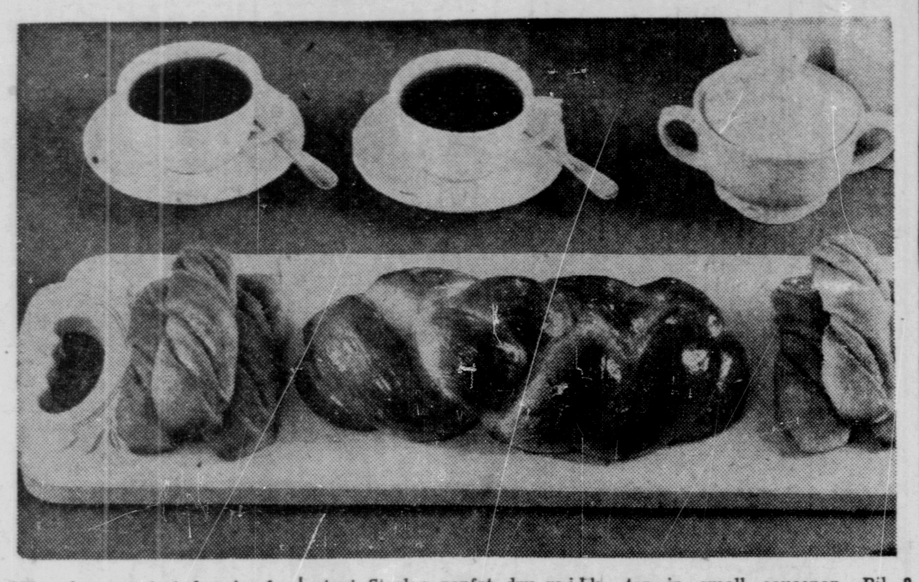
Basic Yeast Dough Yields Many Variations



Here is a new tested recipe for a basic refrigerator dough that has many interesting possibilities for the home baker, especially since it will keep in the refrigerator for about five days.

As a starter we have two recipes which can be made from this basic yeast dough — Cinnamon Twists and a Glazed Braided Loaf.

Basic Refrigerator Dough

2 packages or cakes yeast. active dry or compressed
½ cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
¾ cup hot water
½ cup sugar
1-3 cup shortening
1 tablespoon salt
1 egg, beaten
3-½ cups sifted flour
1 cup instant nonfat dry milk powder

Sprinkle or crumble yeast into ½ cup water (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast or lukewarm for compressed yeast); let stand until dissolved. Stir sugar, shortening and salt into the hot water.

Cool mixture to lukewarm; add yeast. Add egg and two cups of flour; beat until smooth. Sift together remaining flour and instant Starlac nonfat dry milk powder.

Stir into mixture. Place dough in a greased bowl; brush top with waxed paper. Store in refrigerator at least 2 hours before using (will keep about 5 days). When ready to use punch down dough and cut off amount needed.

Glazed Braided Loaf

Use one - half the Basic Refrigerator Dough. Divide into 3 equal parts: roll each into a strand about 14 inches long. Place 2 strands on greased baking sheet, in shape of X.

Place remaining strand lengthwise across center of X. Braid loosely from center to end; always cross with bottom strand. Pinch ends of strands together and tuck under braid. Repeat braid procedure with other half.

Cover lightly with damp cloth. Let rise in warm place until double in bulk, 1 to 2 hours. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until golden brown, about 25 to 30 minutes. Brush or spread hot glaze on braid.

Glaze For Braid

2 tablespoons light corn syrup
4½ teaspoons butter
½ teaspoon vanilla

Combine corn syrup and butter in small saucepan. Bil 2 minutes, over low heat, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Stir in vaniila. Brush or spread hot blaze on braid.

Cinnamon Twists

(Makes 12 twists)

2 tablespoons melted butter
½ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons cinnamon

Use one - half the Basic Refrigerator Dough. Roll into 12-inch square; brush with butter. Lightly mark into thirds. Combine sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle center section of dough with 3 tablespoons of the mixture.

Fold one end section over center; sprinkle with 3 tablespoons of sugar - cinnamon mixture. Fold over remaining section of dough. Cut into 12 strips 1-inch by 4-inches.

Hold both ends of strip; twist tightly in opposite directions. Pinch each end together firmly to seal. Place about 1-½-inches apart on greased baking sheet.

Cover lightly with damp cloth. Let rise in warm place until double in bulk, 1 to 2 hours. Sprinkle tops with remaining sugar-cinnamon mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F. until golden brown, 20 to 25 minutes).

Pentagon Shies From Report On Moon Monitoring

WASHINGTON (AP) — Has the United States developed electronic gadgets which can use the moon to monitor what's going on all over the world?

Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa) made that claim Friday in Holland.

But the Pentagon, hours later, would only say:

"Published reports attributed to a congressman do not coincide with any available information concerning current Department of Defense projects."

But this appeared to conflict with remarks made last April to a special House space committee by Rear Adm. John T. Hayward, the Navy's research chief.

Hayward then replied affirmatively when Fulton asked whether this country has it "within our power soon to monitor the whole world. . . the capability through electronic means to use the moon as a reconnaissance satellite. . .?

Fulton spoke of the new development at the International Astronautical Federation meeting at the Hague.

Possible Peril Cited At Peace Atoms Parley

GENEVA (AP) — An American scientist said today Swiss authorities had expressed concern over possible dangers from radioactivity at the U. S. scientific exhibition for the U. N. atoms-for-peace conference.

"But we have been able to assure the Swiss there was absolutely nothing to worry about," said William Harris, one of six scientists sent to Geneva by the Atomic Energy Commission's health and safety laboratory in New York.

Tavern At Irondale Robbed Of Cash, Liquor

IRONDALE — Jefferson County sheriff's deputies are investigating the robbery of a tavern sometime Thursday night when thieves made off with liquor and cigarettes after rifling the cash drawer.

The Charles Warden Tavern on Main St. was looted of about four fifths of whisky, approximately $100 worth of cigarettes and several hundred dollars in currency from the cash register, deputies reported.

The theft was discovered early Friday morning by Warren White, a tavern employe. Entrance was gained through a rear door that had been pried. Fingerprints were being taken by the sheriff's office.

Hamilton UAW Votes Strike End But Urges Talks

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Striking United Auto Workers have agreed to end their wildcat walkout at General Motors' Fisher Body plant here if management will sit down and talk over grievances.

About 1,900 of the 2,500 employees of the plant voted nearly unanimously Friday to return to work next Monday — Labor Day — on the 10 p.m. shift. All are members of Local 233.

But they stipulated that negotiators confer next Tuesday night. If the grievances are not ironed out, union officials promised to petition the international union for a strike sanction.

The walkout started last Wednesday.

The strikers contended that plant officials were ignoring seniority and job classifications, and that the company was taking disciplinary action without union representation.

Killed By Truck

Akron Man Sues Summit Sheriff For $100,000

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Louis Gordon of Akron filed suit for $100,000 in Common Pleas Court Friday against Summit County Sheriff Russell M. Bird.

He claimed the sheriff had caused him to lose his job as a plant guard at the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.

In a separate suit, Gordon asked $25,000 damages from the sheriff's bonding Company, the Glens Falls Insurance Co. of Cleveland.

Gordon, 55, said in his petition that he lost his job at Goodyear as a result of Bird revoking his commission as a special deputy sheriff last March. He said he had held the commisson since 1943.

Sheriff Bird said that Gordon abused his privileges as a special deputy, but did not elaborate.

Former Wellsville Family In Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Lewis and children, Patricia and Philip, former residents of Maple Ave., Wellsville, have arrived in Kassel, Germany, where he will be a teacher and principal with the American dependents schools.

During the past year, he was stationed in Vicenza Italy, having an enrollment of some 1,200 pupils.

The Lewises toured Rome, Naples, Salerno, Venice, Pompeii, Monaco, Berchtesgaden and expect to visit the Brussel's World Fair over Labor Day.

Lewis is the son of Mrs. Blanche Lewis, 1902 Chester Ave., and a 1939 graduate of Wellsville High School.

British Fish Boats Will Resist Seizure

LONDON (AP) — Secret orders opened at sea by British trawlers today directed them to offer passive resistance to any seizure attempt by Iceland gunboats. About 50 British trawlers supported by the Royal Navy Fishery Protection Squadron headed defiantly to challenge the Icelandic edict banning foreign fishermen from within 12 minutes of the island's coast.

The showdown comes at midnight Sunday when the Icelandic order is effective.

Skippers of the trawlers were instructed to ignore any attempt to interfere with them, to refuse to haul in their fishing gear if told to do so and in no way to facilitate the Icelandic boarding parties.

Resumes Publication

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The independent newspaper Indonesia Raya resumed publication today with the name of Mochtar Lubis on the masthead as editor. Lubis had been under house arrest by the army for 21 months. But the paper had been publishing off and on during that time.
